Board") shall be a body corporate, with perpetual succession and a common seal, and in the name of "The Trustees of the Prince of Wales Museum of Western India" shall sue and be sued, and shall have power to ¹[acquire and hold immoveable or moveable property, to let on hire, lease or mortgage any immoveable property vesting in them] to enter into contracts, and to do all acts necessary for and consistent with the purposes of this Act :

²[Provided that the Board shall not have power to mortgage any land specified in the schedule which is included within lines drawn parallel to, and at a distance of twenty feet from, above the plinths of the front corner towers of the present Museum building and extending from the Rampart Row boundary to the Esplanade Road boundary which area contains by admeasurement 14,606 square yards, be the same a little more or less, and is for greater clearness delineated on the plan referred to in section 2 of the ³Prince of Wales Museum (Amending) Act, 1913, or any building thereon.]

Bom. Act
VII of 1913.

(2) The Board shall consist of the following members, namely :—

⁴[(a) the Director of Industries for the Presidency of Bombay ;]

(b) the Collector of Bombay ;

(c) the Principal of the Sir Jamsetjee Jeejeebhoy School of Art ;

(d) the Superintendent, Archaeological Survey, Western Circle ;

(e) such two members of the Municipal Corporation of the City of Bombay as shall from time to time be elected by the said Corporation in accordance with such regulations as may from time to time be made in this behalf by the said Corporation : provided that the election shall be by ⁵[ballot] ;

⁴[(f) three other persons be nominated by the Government ;]

⁴[(g) so long as the collections installed in the Museum by the Bombay Natural History Society remain in the Museum, two other persons to be nominated by the Managing Committee of the Bombay Natural History Society ;

(h) so long as the loan collection of the Bombay branch of the Royal Asiatic Society remains in the museum, one other person to be nominated by the Bombay branch of that Society ;

² This proviso was added by s. 2 (b) ibid.

³ Infra.

⁴ This clause was substituted by s. 2 of the Prince of Wales Museum (Amendment) Act, 1922 (Bom. Act 12 of 1922), supra.

⁵ This word was substituted for the words "open vote, and" by ibid.

⁶ These clauses were inserted by ibid.

(i) one other person to be nominated by the Syndicate of the University of Bombay; and

(j) four other persons to be nominated by the Board, if the Board so desire, for such period as the Board may consider desirable.]•

(3) In the case of ex-officio members the person for the time being performing the duties of any of the offices mentioned in sub-section (2) shall act as a member.

(4) All acts done by a majority of the members present and voting at a meeting of the Board shall be deemed to be acts of the Board.

(5) No act of the Board shall be deemed to be invalid merely by reason of any vacancy in, or defect in the constitution of, the Board.

(6) The Board may appoint a person to act as their Secretary.

(7) Orders for the payment of money on behalf of the Board shall be deemed to be sufficiently authenticated if signed by two members and countersigned by the Secretary.

Term of office : election and appointment of new members if a vacancy.

¹[3A. (2) Members of the Board other than ex-officio members shall, save as herein otherwise provided, hold office for a period of three years.

(2) If a member, other than an ex-officio member—

(a) dies, or

(b) is absent from the meetings of the Board for more than six consecutive months, or

(c) leaves the Presidency of Bombay with the intention of being absent therefrom for more than six consecutive months, or

(d) desires to be discharged, or

(e) refuses to act or becomes incapable of acting,

a new member may be elected or nominated, as the case may be, in the same manner as was the member in whose place he is to be elected or nominated and he shall hold office for so long only as such member would have held it if the vacancy had not occurred.

Power of board to lend, exchange, sell or destroy articles in collections.

¹[3B. Subject to the provisions of any rules made by the Government in this behalf the Board may, from time to time—

(a) deliver by way of loan to any person the whole or any portion of, or any article contained in, any collection vested in them under this Act ;

¹ Sections 3A, 3B and 3C were inserted by s. 3 of the Prince of Wales Museum (Amendment) Act, 1922 (Bom. Act 12 of 1922), infra.

- (b) exchange or sell articles contained in any such collection and take or purchase, in the place of such articles, such articles as may in their opinion be worthy of preservation in the Museum ;
- (c) present articles contained in any such collection to other Museums in India or elsewhere ; and
- (d) remove and destroy any article contained in any such collection :

Provided that nothing herein contained shall authorise the Trustees to lend, exchange, sell, present, remove or destroy any article when such lending, exchange, sale, presentation, removal or destruction, as the case may be, is precluded by the terms on which the Trustees may have received any such article.]

¹[3C. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, the Board may, if they think fit, assume the custody and administration of collections which are not the property of the Board for the purposes of their trust under this Act and keep and preserve such collections either in the Museum or elsewhere.]

Power of Board to keep collections not belonging to them.

XLV of 1860.

4. All officers and servants employed by the Board shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the ²Indian Penal Code :

Officers and servants to be public servants.

Provided that this section shall not apply to persons in the service of any contractor employed by the Board.

5. (1) The ³[Government] may make rules⁴ to carry out the purposes of this Act.

Rules.

(2) In particular, and without prejudices to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide—

- (a) for the manner in which meetings of the Board shall be convened, the quorum necessary for the transaction of business, and the procedure at such meetings ;
- (b) for the appointment of committees of the Board, and the powers of expenditure and control which may be delegated to such committees ;
- (c) for the erection of the Museum on the land specified in the schedule to this Act and for the maintenance and management of the said land and Museum, the care and custody of the objects deposited in the Museum, and the conditions under which the public shall have access to the land or Museum ;

² General Acts, Vol. I.

³ This word was substituted for the words " Governor of Bombay in Council " by ⁴ of the Prince of Wales Museum (Amendment) Act, 1922 (Bom. Act 12 of 1922), infra.

⁴ For rules see the Bombay Local Rules and orders.

- (d) for the maintenance, management and disposal of any other immovable property vested in the Board and for the investment and re-investment in public securities or otherwise and for the safe custody of the funds of the Board ;
- (e) for the form of accounts to be kept by the Board, and for the audit and publication of such accounts ; and
- (f) for the application to the officers and servants employed by the Board of the rules which apply to the civil servants of the Crown, or to any class of such civil servants.

Power to borrow from Government or person.

¹[6. The Board may from time to time borrow or reborrow and take up at interest from the Government or with the previous sanction of the Government from any person any sum necessary for the purpose of defraying any costs, charges or expenses incurred or to be incurred by them to carry out the purposes of this Act, or for the purpose of repaying either in whole or part any sums hereafter borrowed or owing by the Board :

Provided that no loan exceeding in amount twenty-five lakhs of Rupees shall be raised by the Board unless the terms, including the date of flotation of such loan, have been approved by the Government of India.]

Mortgage of immovable property, or revenues.

¹[7. (1) The Board may borrow or reborrow any such sum as aforesaid from any person on the security of any immovable property vesting in them other than the property mentioned in the proviso to section 3 or of their revenues or of both of these securities.

(2) For the purpose of securing the repayment of any sum so borrowed with interest thereon they may mortgage to the person by or on behalf of whom such sum is advanced any such immovable property or revenues of both of these securities.]

Provisions as to sinking funds.

¹Sections 6 to 17 were added by s. 3 of the Prince of Wales Museum (Amendment) Act, 1921 (Bom. Act 6 of 1921), infra.

² These words were substituted for the words "within the period sanctioned" by s. 5 of the Prince of Wales Museum (Amendment) Act, 1922 (Bom. Act 12 of 1922), infra.

(2) The Board may at any time apply the whole or any part of a sinking fund set apart under this section in or towards the discharge of the moneys for the repayment of which the fund has been established : Provided that they pay into the fund each time that interest would have been received by the Board in respect of the sinking fund or the part of the sinking fund so applied, and accumulate, until the whole of the moneys borrowed are discharged, a sum equivalent to the interest which would have been so received.]

¹[10. (1) In respect of any sinking fund which by this Act the Board are directed or empowered to invest in public securities or in such other securities as the Government may approve in this behalf, it shall be lawful for the Board to reserve and set apart for the purposes of any such investment any debentures to be issued on account of any loan for which the sanction of the Government shall have been duly obtained, provided that the intention so to reserve and set apart such debentures shall have been notified as a condition of the issue of the loan. Issue of debentures.

(2) The issue of any such debentures direct to and in the name of "the Trustees of the Prince of Wales Museum of Western India" shall not operate to extinguish or cancel such debentures, but every debenture so issued shall be valid in all respects as if issued to, and in the name of, any other person.

(3) The purchase by, or the transfer, assignment or endorsement to, the Board of any debenture issued by the Board shall not operate to extinguish or cancel any such debenture, but the same shall be valid and negotiable in the same manner and to the same extent as if held by, or transferred, assigned or endorsed to, any other person.]

¹[11. (1) When money is raised by the Board on debentures the debentures shall be in such form as the Board, with the previous sanction of the Government, shall from time to time determine. Form of debentures.

(j) the suspension, so far as may be necessary for the proper carrying out of the scheme, of any rule having the force of law, bye-law, Act, or other provision ^{1} which is in force in the area included in the scheme :

¹ words "under whatever authority made" were repealed by section 8 and Schedule 6 Bombay Repealing and Amending Act, 1919 (Bom. Act 2 of 1919), infra.

[Provided that it shall not be lawful to suspend in any such area any Act of Parliament or, without the sanction of the Governor General, any Act of the Governor General in Council.]

(k) such other matter not inconsistent with the objects of this Act as may be prescribed.

4. (1) Where there is a disputed claim as to the ownership of any piece of land included in an area in respect of which any of the provisions of this Act are to be applied and any entry in the record-of-rights or mutation register relevant to such disputed claim is inaccurate or inconclusive, an enquiry may be held by such officer as the Governor in Council in the City of Bombay or the Commissioner elsewhere may appoint for the purpose of deciding who shall be deemed to be the owner for the purposes of this Act. Disputed ownership.

(2) Such decision shall not be subject to appeal but it shall not operate as a bar to a regular suit.

(3) Such decision shall, in the event of a Civil Court passing a decree which is inconsistent therewith, be corrected, modified or rescinded in accordance with such decree as soon as practicable after such decree has been brought to the notice of the local authority either by the Civil Court or by some person affected by such decree.

5. For the purpose of the preparation, making, or execution of any town planning scheme any person authorized by the local authority or any public servant or person duly appointed or authorised under this Act may, after giving such notice as may be prescribed to the owner, occupier or other person interested in any land, enter upon, survey and mark out such land and do all acts necessary for such purpose. Right of entry.

IX of 1914. 6. (1) A local authority as defined in this Act shall be deemed to be a local authority as defined in the Local Authorities Loans Act, 1914, for the purpose of borrowing money under that Act, and the making and execution of a town planning scheme shall be deemed to be a work which such local authority is legally authorized to carry out. Powers of local authority to borrow money and to make and execute a town planning scheme.

(2) Any expenses incurred by a local authority under this Act or any town planning scheme made thereunder may be defrayed out of its funds.

Bom. Act III of 1901. 7. Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3) of section 187 of the Bombay District Municipal Act, 1901, the Governor in Council may declare any specified area, for which it is proposed to make a town planning scheme, to be a notified area. Notified areas.

¹ This provision was added by section 2 and Schedule I, Part II, of the Bombay Repealing and Amending Act, 1919 (Bom. Act 2 of 1919), infra.

CHAPTER II.—DECLARATION OF INTENTION TO MAKE A SCHEME, AND PREPARATION OF DRAFT SCHEME.

Land in respect of which a town planning scheme may be made.

8 (1) A town planning scheme may be made in accordance with the provisions of this Act in respect of any land which is in course of development or is likely to be used for building purposes.

(2) Where it appears to the Governor in Council that a piece of land already built upon, or a piece of land not likely to be used for building purposes is so situated with respect to any land which is in course of development or likely to be used for building purposes that it ought to be included in any town planning scheme intended to be made with respect to the last-mentioned land, the Governor in Council may sanction the making of a scheme including such piece of land as aforesaid, and providing for the demolition or alteration of any buildings thereon so far as may be necessary for carrying the scheme into effect.

(3) The expression "land likely to be used for building purposes" shall include any land likely to be used as, or for the purpose of providing, open spaces, roads, streets, parks, pleasure or recreation grounds, or for the purpose of executing any work upon or under the land incidental to a town planning scheme, whether in the nature of a building work or not, and the decision of the Governor in Council as to whether land is likely to be used for building purposes or not shall be final.

a local authority to resolve on a declaration of intention to make a scheme and of the Governor in Council to sanction such declaration.

9. (1) The local authority having jurisdiction over any such land as is referred to in section 8 may by resolution declare its intention to make a town planning scheme in respect of the whole or any part of such land and of any land which is in the vicinity of such land but which is not included in any other municipal or notified area, provided that for the making of such scheme the sanction of the Governor in Council shall be necessary.

(2) Within twenty-one days from the date of such declaration (hereinafter referred to as a declaration of intention to make a scheme), the local authority shall despatch a copy thereof for publication in the Bombay Government Gazette and shall publish it in the prescribed manner and shall apply to the Governor in Council for sanction for the making of such scheme.

(3) With its application for such sanction the local authority shall send to the Governor in Council a plan showing the area which it proposes to include in the town planning scheme and the surrounding lands.

(4) A copy of such plan shall be open to the inspection of the public at all reasonable hours at the head office of the local authority.

(5) If within one month from the date of such publication in the Bombay Government Gazette any person likely to be affected by such scheme communicates in writing to the Governor in Council any objection or suggestion relating to such scheme the Governor in Council shall consider such objection or suggestion.

(6) After receiving such application and after making such inquiry as he may think fit, the Governor in Council may, by notification in the Bombay Government Gazette, either sanction the making of such scheme with or without modifications and subject to such conditions as he may think fit to impose, or he may by a similar notification refuse to give sanction.

10. (1) Within twelve months from the date of the notification sanctioning the making of a town planning scheme the local authority shall in consultation with the owners prepare, and publish in the prescribed manner, a draft scheme for the area in respect of which sanction has been given.

Preparation and publication of draft scheme.

(2) If such publication is not made by the local authority within twelve months from the date of such notification, the Governor in Council in the City of Bombay or the Commissioner elsewhere may in consultation with the owners prepare, and publish in the prescribed manner, a draft scheme for the area in respect of which sanction has been given within a further period of nine months.

(3) If such publication is not made by the Governor in Council or the Commissioner, as the case may be, within the further period specified in sub-section (2), the sanction of the Governor in Council for the making of such town planning scheme shall lapse, and until a period of three years has elapsed from the date of such sanction it shall not be competent to the local authority to apply for fresh sanction for the making of any town planning scheme for the same area or for any part of it.

Lapsing of sanction.

11. The draft scheme shall contain the following particulars :—

Contents of draft scheme.

- (a) the area, ownership and tenure of each original plot ;
- (b) the land allotted or reserved under clause (d) of section 3, with a general indication of the uses to which such land is to be put ;
- (c) the extent to which it is proposed to alter the boundaries of original plots ;
- (d) an estimate of the net cost of the scheme to be borne by the local authority ;
- (e) a full description of all details of the scheme under such clauses of section 3 as may be applicable ; and
- (f) any other prescribed particulars.

Reconstituted plots.

12. (1) In the draft scheme the size and shape of every reconstituted plot shall be so determined as to render it, so far as may be, suitable for building purposes.

(2) In order to render original plots more suitable for building purposes the draft scheme may contain proposals

- (a) to form a reconstituted plot by the alteration of the boundaries of an original plot,
- (b) to provide with the consent of the owners that two or more original plots each of which is held in ownership in severalty or in joint ownership shall hereafter, with or without alteration of boundaries, be held in ownership in common as a reconstituted plot,
- (c) to allot a plot to any owner dispossessed of land in furtherance of the scheme, and
- (d) to transfer the ownership of a plot from one person to another.

Objections to the draft scheme to be considered.

13. If within one month from the date of publication of the draft scheme any person affected by such scheme communicates in writing to the local authority any objection relating to such scheme the local authority shall consider such objection and may, at any time before submitting the draft scheme to the Governor in Council as hereinafter provided, modify such scheme as it thinks fit.

Power of the Governor in Council to sanction a draft scheme.

14. (1) The local authority shall then submit the draft scheme with any modifications which it may have made therein together with the objections which may have been communicated to it to the Governor in Council and shall at the same time apply for his sanction.

(2) After receiving such application and after making such inquiry as he may think fit, the Governor in Council may, by notification in the Bombay Government Gazette, either sanction such scheme with or without modifications and subject to such conditions as he may think fit to impose, or he may by a similar notification refuse to give sanction.

(3) If the Governor in Council sanctions such scheme, he shall in such notification state at what place and time the draft scheme shall be open to the inspection of the public.

Restrictions after declaration.

15. (1) When a local authority has published a declaration of intention to make a scheme—

- (a) no person shall within the area included in the scheme erect or proceed with any building or work¹ or remove, pull down or alter any building or part of a building or remove any earth, stone or material] unless such person has applied for and obtained the necessary permission which shall be contained in a commencement certificate granted by the local authority in the form prescribed;

(b) the local authority on receipt of such application shall at once furnish the applicant with a written acknowledgment of its receipt, and after enquiry may either grant or refuse such certificate or grant it subject to such conditions as may be consistent with the scheme; but if the local authority communicates no decision to the applicant within three months from the date of such acknowledgment he shall be deemed to have been granted such certificate;

(c) if in the opinion of the local authority any person contravenes the provisions contained in clause (a) or clause (b), the local authority after making enquiry in the prescribed manner may by notice in writing direct such person to stop any work in progress;

(d) any expenses incurred by the local authority under clause (c) shall be a sum due to the local authority under this Act from the person in default;

¹ [(e) any diminution in the value of an original plot occasioned by any contravention of clause (a) or clause (b) shall, notwithstanding anything contained in sections 16, 17 or 19, be taken into account in fixing the market value of such plot.]

(2) No person shall be entitled to compensation in respect of any damage, loss or injury resulting from any action taken by the local authority under the provisions of this section or of section 43, except in respect of a building or work begun or a contract entered into before the date on which the local authority published a declaration of intention to make a scheme, and only in so far as such building or work has proceeded at the time of the publication of the declaration of intention to make a scheme.

(3) The restrictions imposed by this section shall cease to operate in the event of the Governor in Council refusing to sanction the making of a town planning scheme, or in the event of the sanction of the Governor in Council for the making of such scheme lapsing, or in the event of the Governor in Council refusing to sanction the draft scheme.

CHAPTER III.—FINANCE.

Costs of the scheme.

16. (1) The costs of a town-planning scheme shall include—

(a) all sums payable by the local authority under the provisions of this Act which are not specifically excluded from the costs of the scheme;

(b) all sums spent or estimated to be spent by the local authority in the making and in the execution of the scheme;

(c) all legal expenses of the local authority incurred in the making and in the execution of the scheme; and

(d) any amount by which the total of the values of the original plots exceeds the total of the values of the plots included in the final scheme, each of such plots being estimated at its market value at the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme with all the buildings and works thereon at that date and without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme other than improvements due to the alteration of its boundaries.

(2) If in any case the total of the values of the plots included in the final scheme exceeds the total of the values of the original plots, each of such plots being estimated in the manner provided in clause (d) of sub-section (1), then the amount of such excess shall be deducted in arriving at the costs of the scheme, as defined in sub-section (1).

Calculation of increment.

17. ¹ [For the purposes of this Act the increment shall be deemed to be the amount by which at the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme the market value of a plot included in the final scheme estimated on the assumption that the scheme has been completed would exceed at the same date the market value of the same plot estimated without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme:]

provided that in estimating such values the value of buildings or other works erected or in the course of erection on such plot shall not be taken into consideration.

Contribution towards the costs of the scheme.

18. (1) The costs of the scheme shall be met wholly or in part by a contribution to be levied by the local authority on each plot included in the final scheme calculated in proportion to the increment which is estimated to accrue in respect of such plot by the Tribunal of Arbitration:

provided that—

(i) no such contribution shall exceed half the increment estimated by the Tribunal of Arbitration to accrue in respect of such plot; and

¹ This paragraph was substituted by s. 3 of the Bombay Town Planning (Amendment) Act, 1920 (Bom. Act 13 of 1920), infra.

(ii) where a plot is subject to a mortgage with possession or to a lease, the Tribunal of Arbitration shall determine in what proportion the mortgagee or lessee on the one hand and the mortgagor or lessor on the other hand shall pay such contribution.

(2) The owner of each plot included in the final scheme shall be primarily liable for the payment of the contribution leviable in respect of such plot.

Owner primarily liable for contribution.

19. The amount by which the total value of the plots included in the final scheme with all the buildings and works thereon allotted to a person falls short of or exceeds the total value of the original plots with all the buildings and works thereon of such person shall be deducted from or added to, as the case may be, the contributions leviable from such person, each of such plots being estimated at its market value at the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme and without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme other than improvements due to the alteration of its boundaries.

Certain amount to be added to or deducted from the contribution leviable from a person.

20. Any right in an original plot which in the opinion of the arbitrator is capable of being transferred wholly or in part, without prejudice to the making of a town planning scheme, to a reconstituted plot shall be so transferred and any right in an original plot which in the opinion of the arbitrator is not capable of being so transferred shall be extinguished :

Transfer of
original to reconstituted plot, or extinction of

Provided that an agricultural lease shall not be transferred from an original plot to a reconstituted plot without the consent of all the parties to such lease.

21. The owner of any property or right which is injuriously affected by the making of a town planning scheme shall, if he makes a claim before the arbitrator within the prescribed time, be entitled to obtain compensation in respect thereof from the local authority or from any person benefited or partly from the local authority and partly from such person, as the Tribunal of Arbitration may in each case determine :

Compensation in respect of property or right injuriously affected by scheme.

Provided that the value of such property or right shall be held to be its market value at the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme.

22. (1) Where property or a private right of any sort is alleged to be injuriously affected by reason of any provisions contained in a town planning scheme, no compensation shall be paid in respect thereof if or in so far as the provisions are such as would have been enforceable without compensation under any rule having the force of law, bye-law or Act in force at the time.

Exclusion or limitation of compensation in certain cases.

(2) Property or a private right of any sort shall not be deemed to be injuriously affected by reason of any provisions inserted in a town planning scheme, which, with a view to securing the amenity of the area included in such scheme or any part thereof, impose any conditions and restrictions in regard to any of the matters specified in clause (7) of section 3.

Provision for case in which amount payable to owner exceeds amount due from him.

23. If the owner of an original plot is not provided with a plot in the final scheme, or if the contribution to be levied from him under section 18 is less than the total amount to be deducted therefrom under any of the provisions of this Act, the net amount of his loss shall be payable to him by the local authority in cash, or in such other way as may be agreed upon by the parties.

Provision for case in which value of developed plot is less than amount payable by owner.

24. (1) If from any cause the total amount which would be due to the local authority under the provisions of this Act from the owner of a plot to be included in the final scheme exceeds the value of such plot estimated on the assumption that the scheme has been completed, the arbitrator shall, at the request of the local authority, direct the owner of such plot to make payment to the local authority of the amount of such excess.

(2) If such owner fails to make such payment within the prescribed period, the arbitrator shall, if the local authority so requests, acquire the original plot of such defaulter and apportion the compensation among the owner and other persons interested in the plot on payment by the local authority of the value of such plot estimated at its market value at the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme and without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme; and thereupon the plot included in the final scheme shall vest absolutely in the local authority, free from all encumbrances but subject to the provisions of this Act :

provided that the payment made by the local authority on account of the value of the original plot shall not be included in the costs of the scheme.

Payment by adjustment of account.

25. All payments due to be made to any person by the local authority under this Act shall, as far as possible, be made by an adjustment in such person's account with the local authority in respect of the plot concerned or of any other plot in which he has an interest and failing such adjustment shall be paid in cash or in such other way as may be agreed upon by the parties.

Payment of net amount due to local authority.

26. (1) The net amount payable under the provisions of this Act by the owner of a plot included in the final scheme may at the option of the contributor be paid in one sum or in such instalments including charges for interest as shall be fixed by the local authority with the sanction of the Governor in Council in the City of Bombay or the Commissioner elsewhere.

(2) Where more than one plot included in the final scheme is in the same ownership the net amount payable by such owner under the provisions of this Act shall be distributed over his several plots in proportion to the increment which is estimated to accrue in respect of each plot unless the owner and the local authority agree to a different method of distribution.

27. (1) A local authority shall be competent to make any agreement with any person in respect of any matter which is to be provided for in a town-planning scheme, subject to the power of the Governor in Council to modify or disallow such agreement and, unless it is otherwise expressly provided therein, such agreement shall take effect on and after the day on which the town-planning scheme comes into force.

(2) Such agreement shall not in any way affect the duties of the arbitrator or of the Tribunal of Arbitration as described in Chapter IV or the rights of third parties, but it shall be binding on the parties to the agreement notwithstanding any decision that may be passed by the arbitrator or by the Tribunal of Arbitration:

provided that if the agreement be modified by Government, either party shall have the option of avoiding it if he so elects.

28. Any sum due to the local authority under this Act which is not paid on the day when it becomes due shall be recovered by the Collector, according to law and under the rules for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of land-revenue, on application being made to him by the local authority.

CHAPTER IV.—THE ARBITRATOR AND THE TRIBUNAL OF ARBITRATION.

29. After a draft scheme has been sanctioned the Governor in Council shall appoint an arbitrator with sufficient establishment whose duties shall be as hereinafter provided.

30. In accordance with the prescribed procedure the arbitrator shall—

(1) after notice given by him in the prescribed manner define and where it is in his opinion necessary, demarcate the areas allotted to, or reserved for, the local authority, and the reconstituted plots;

(2) after notice given by him in the prescribed manner determine, in a case in which a reconstituted plot is to be allotted to persons in ownership in common, the shares of such persons;

(3) fix the difference between the total of the values of the original plots and the total of the values of the plots included in the final scheme, in accordance with the provisions contained in clause (3) of sub-section (1) of section 16;

(4) estimate the increment to accrue in respect of each plot included in the final scheme, in accordance with the provisions contained in section 17 ;

(5) calculate the proportion in which the increment of the plots included in the final scheme shall be liable to contribution to the costs of the scheme, in accordance with the provisions contained in section 18 ;

(6) calculate the contribution to be levied on each plot included in the final scheme ;

(7) determine the amount to be deducted from or added to, as the case may be, the contributions leviable from a person, in accordance with the provisions contained in section 19 ;

(8) provide for the total or partial transfer of any right in an original plot to a reconstituted plot or provide for the extinction of any right in an original plot, in accordance with the provisions contained in section 20 ;

(9) estimate in reference to claims made before him, after notice given by him in the prescribed manner, the compensation to be paid to the owner of any property or right injuriously affected by the making of a town-planning scheme, in accordance with the provisions contained in section 21 and subject to the provisions contained in section 22 ;

(10) draw up in the prescribed form the final scheme in accordance with the draft scheme :

provided that—

(i) he may make variations from the draft scheme ;

(ii) any variation estimated by him to involve an increase of ten per centum in the costs of the scheme as described in section 16 shall require the sanction of the Governor in Council :

provided further that he shall make no substantial variation without the consent of the local authority and without hearing any objections that may be raised by the owners concerned ; and that in the case of any substantial variation made by him the owners concerned shall have the right of appeal to the Governor in Council.

Certain
decisions of the arbitrator shall be final.

31. Except in matters arising out of clauses (4), (5), (6) and (9) of section 30, and subject to the provisions contained in clause (10) of section 30, every decision of the arbitrator shall be final and conclusive and binding on all persons.

32. In matters arising out of clauses (4), (5), (6) and (9) of section 30, the arbitrator shall estimate or calculate what is required by such clauses to be estimated or calculated and shall forthwith make proposals on all such matters to the President of the Tribunal of Arbitration for the decision of such Tribunal. Arbitrator shall make proposals in certain matters.

33. (1) The Tribunal of Arbitration shall consist of a President and two Assessors. Constitution of the Tribunal of Arbitration

(2) The President shall, in the City of Bombay, be a person who holds or has held office as a Judge of the High Court of Judicature, to be appointed by the Chief Justice, in the district of Karachi, be such Additional Judicial Commissioner as may be appointed by the Judicial Commissioner, and elsewhere the District Judge.

(3) One of the Assessors shall be an impartial person to be appointed, in the City of Bombay, by such person who holds or has held office as a Judge of the High Court, in the district of Karachi, by such Additional Judicial Commissioner, and elsewhere by the District Judge.

(4) The other Assessor shall be the arbitrator.

(5) The President and the Assessor shall be appointed members of the Tribunal of Arbitration for such period as may be required by such Tribunal to decide in connection with a particular town-planning scheme all matters arising out of clauses (4), (5), (6) and (9) of section 30.

(6) The Governor in Council may, if he thinks fit, remove for inability or misconduct or any other good and sufficient reason the Assessor appointed under sub-section (3) or the Arbitrator.

(7) If any member of the Tribunal of Arbitration is removed or dies or refuses or neglects to act or becomes incapable of acting, the authority who appointed such member shall appoint forthwith a fit person to take the place of such member.

34. The Tribunal of Arbitration may sit either at the Headquarters of the President or at any other place, within the local limits of his jurisdiction, which he may consider convenient for the decision of any matter before such Tribunal. Place where the Tribunal may sit.

35. Every party to any proceeding before the Tribunal of Arbitration shall be entitled to appear either in person or by his recognised agent. Right to appear by recognised agent.

36. All questions of law and procedure shall be decided by the President. All other questions shall be decided by the President and the two Assessors or by the majority of them. Decision of questions of law and procedure and other questions.

Powers of the Tribunal to decide matters finally.

37. (1) After making such enquiry as the President may think fit the Tribunal of Arbitration may accept, modify, vary, or reject the proposals of the arbitrator and shall decide all matters arising out of clauses (4), (5), (6) and (1) of section 3.

(2) Every decision of the Tribunal of Arbitration shall be final and conclusive and binding on all persons.

Tribunal not a Court.

38. Nothing contained in this Act shall be deemed to constitute the Tribunal of Arbitration to be a Court.

Remuneration of arbitrator and Assessor and payment of incidental expenses of Tribunal.

39. (1) The arbitrator, the President of the Tribunal of Arbitration, and the Assessor shall, save where they are salaried officers of Government, be entitled to such remuneration, either by way of monthly salary or by way of fees or partly in one way and partly in the other, as the Governor in Council may from time to time determine.

(2) The salary of an arbitrator, a President of the Tribunal of Arbitration or an Assessor who is a salaried officer of Government, and any remuneration payable under sub-section (1) and all expenses incidental to the working of the Tribunal of Arbitration shall, unless the Governor in Council otherwise determines, be defrayed out of the funds of the local authority and shall be added to the costs of the scheme.

Final scheme.

40. (1) After the Tribunal of Arbitration has decided all matters arising out of clauses (4), (5), (6) and (2) of section 30, the arbitrator shall forward the final scheme through the local authority to the Governor in Council, who, on sanctioning the same, shall publish a notification relating thereto in the Bombay Government Gazette and in any other way which may be prescribed.

(2) In such notification it shall be stated where the final scheme is open to the inspection of the public and the price at which copies may be obtained, and a date not earlier than one month after the publication of such notification shall be fixed as the date on which all liabilities created by the scheme shall take effect and the final scheme shall come into force.

(3) On and after the date fixed in such notification a town planning scheme shall have effect as if it were enacted in this Act

Effect of final scheme.

41. On the day on which the final scheme comes into force—

(a) all lands required by the local authority shall, unless it is otherwise determined in such scheme, vest absolutely in the local authority free from all encumbrances ;

(b) all rights in original plots which have been reconstituted shall determine and the reconstituted plots shall become subject to the rights settled by the arbitrator.

42. On and after the day on which the final scheme comes into force any person continuing to occupy any land which he is not entitled to occupy under the final scheme may, in accordance with the prescribed procedure, be summarily evicted by the local authority. Power of local authority to evict summarily

43. (1) On and after the day on which the final scheme comes into force the local authority may after giving the prescribed notice and in accordance with the provisions of the scheme— Power to enforce scheme.

(a) remove, pull down, or alter any building or other work in the area included in the scheme which is such as to contravene the scheme or in the erection or carrying out of which any provision of the scheme has not been complied with ;

(b) execute any work which it is the duty of any person to execute under the scheme in any case where it appears to the local authority that delay in the execution of the work would prejudice the efficient operation of the scheme.

(2) Any expenses incurred by a local authority under this section may be recovered from the persons in default in the manner hereinbefore provided for the recovery of sums due to the local authority under the provisions of this Act.

(3) If any question arises as to whether any building or work contravenes a town-planning scheme, or whether any provision of a town-planning scheme is not complied with in the erection or carrying out of any such building or work, that question shall be referred to the Governor in Council in the City of Bombay or the Commissioner elsewhere, and his decision shall be final and conclusive and binding on all persons.

44. For the purposes of this Act an officer appointed under sub-section (1) of section 4, an arbitrator or a Tribunal of Arbitration may summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses including the parties interested or any of them and compel them to give evidence and compel the production of documents by the same means and, as far as possible, in the same manner as is provided in the case of a Civil Court by the ¹ Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. Power to compel attendance of witnesses.

V of 1908.

CHAPTER V.—MISCELLANEOUS.

45. (1) When two or more local authorities are of opinion that the interests of contiguous areas within their respective jurisdictions can best be served by the making of a joint town-planning scheme, and the Governor in Council agrees with such opinion, a joint Town Planning Board shall be constituted. Joint town-planning schemes.

(2) Such Board shall consist of representatives of each of the several local authorities and of persons nominated by the Governor in Council in such proportion as may be prescribed.

(3) The representatives of the several local authorities shall be elected in the prescribed manner on dates appointed by the Governor in Council in the City of Bombay and by the Commissioner elsewhere.

(4) Such Board, when duly constituted, shall make a declaration of intention to make a joint town planning scheme in respect of the contiguous areas in the manner provided in section 4 and thereafter the procedure shall follow all the provisions of this Act and such Board shall have all the powers and be liable to all the duties of a local authority under the provisions of this Act.

(5) The draft joint town-planning scheme shall specify the parts of the scheme to be executed by the several local authorities in the several contiguous areas and the several parts of the scheme shall, when notified in the final scheme, have effect in the several contiguous areas as if they were separate schemes :

provided that any part of a joint town-planning scheme may be executed jointly by two or more local authorities.

Vesting of property and rights of a local authority ceasing to exist or ceasing to have jurisdiction.

[45A. When any local authority ceases to exist or ceases to have jurisdiction over any area included in a town planning scheme the property and rights vested in such local authority under this Act shall, subject to all charges and liabilities affecting the same, vest in such other local authority or authorities as the Governor in Council may, with the consent of such authority or authorities, by notification in the Bombay Government Gazette direct ; and such local authority or each one of such local authorities shall have all the powers under this Act in respect of such scheme or such part of a scheme as comes within its jurisdiction which the local authority ceasing to exist or ceasing to have jurisdiction had.]

Power to vary or revoke a town-planning scheme.

46. (1) A town planning scheme may at any time be varied or revoked by a subsequent scheme prepared, published and sanctioned in accordance with this Act.

(2) The Governor in Council, on the application of the local authority or of any person appearing to him to be interested, may at any time, by notification in the Bombay Government Gazette, revoke a town-planning scheme if he thinks that under the special circumstances of the case the scheme should be so revoked.

47. If at any time after the day on which the final scheme has come into force such scheme is varied or revoked, any person who has incurred expenditure for the purpose of complying with such scheme shall be entitled to receive compensation from the local authority, in so far as any such expenditure is rendered abortive by reason of the variation or revocation of such scheme.

48. If in the opinion of the Governor in Council any local authority is not competent to exercise or perform, or neglects or fails to exercise or perform, any power conferred or duty imposed upon it under any of the provisions of this Act, the Governor in Council, or any person or persons appointed in this behalf by the Governor in Council, may exercise such power or perform such duty.

Governor in Council may himself or through any person exercise power or perform duty conferred or imposed on a local authority.

49. No suit or other legal proceeding shall be maintained in respect of the exercise of any discretion conferred by this Act or against any public servant or person duly appointed or authorised under this Act in respect of anything in good faith done or purporting to be done under the provisions thereof or the rules made thereunder.

Bar of legal proceedings.

XVI of 1908.

50. (1) Nothing in the ¹Indian Registration Act, 1908, shall be deemed to require the registration of any document, plan or map prepared, made or sanctioned in connection with a final scheme which has come into force and which has not been revoked.

Registration of document, plan or map in connection with a final scheme is not required.

XVI of 1908.

(2) All such documents, plans and maps shall, for the purposes of sections 48 and 49 of the ¹Indian Registration Act, 1908, be deemed to have been and to be registered in accordance with the provisions of that Act:

provided that documents, plans and maps relating to the sanctioned scheme shall be accessible to the public in the manner prescribed.

I of 1894.

51. Land needed for the purpose of a town-planning scheme shall be deemed to be land needed for a public purpose, within the meaning of the ²Land Acquisition Act, 1894.

Land needed for purpose of town-planning scheme may be compulsorily acquired.

52. (1) The Governor in Council may make rules consistent with the provisions of this Act to provide for all matters not specifically enacted therein.

² General Acts, Vol. IV.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power such rules shall be made to determine the following matters: —

- (a) the procedure to be followed by the officer appointed to hold an enquiry for the purpose of deciding a disputed claim as to ownership under section 4;
- (b) the notice to be given under section 5;
- (c) the manner of publication of a declaration of intention to make a scheme under sub-section (2) of section 9;
- (d) the manner of publication of a draft scheme under section 10;
- (e) the further particulars to be prescribed for inclusion in the draft scheme under clause (f) of section 11;
- (f) the form of the commencement certificate to be granted by a local authority under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 15 and the conditions, if any, to be included therein;
- (g) the procedure to be followed by a local authority in making an enquiry under clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 15;
- (h) the time to be allowed for making a claim to compensation under section 21;
- (i) the period within which payment is to be made to the local authority under section 24;
- (j) the procedure to be prescribed under section 30 and the notices to be given under sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) of that section;
- (k) the form in which the arbitrator is to draw up the final scheme under sub-section (10) of section 30;
- (l) the way in which the ¹ [Governor in Council] is to publish a notification relating to the final scheme under sub-section (1) of section 40;
- (m) the procedure to be followed by the local authority in summarily evicting a person under section 42;
- (n) the notice to be given by the local authority before it takes action under section 43;
- (o) the proportion of elected and nominated persons on a Joint Planning Board under sub-section (2) of section 45;
- (p) the manner of election of representatives of the several local authorities under sub-section (3) of section 45;

²General Acts, Vol. II,

- (b) "ton" means a ton as determined or determinable by the rules for the time being in force for regulating the measurement of the net tonnage of British ships.

Imposition of coast-light dues.

3. (1) For the purpose of providing lights on the coast of the Province of Sind, coast-light dues shall be paid in respect of every vessel of the burden of forty-five tons or upwards arriving at or clearing out of any port, within the Province of Sind, notified in this behalf by the Commissioner in Sind.

(2) The said dues shall be paid at such rates, not exceeding 9 pies per ton, as the Governor in Council may, from time to time, fix by notification in the Sind Official Gazette, provided that sailing vessels shall not be chargeable at more than half the rates which would be chargeable if they were steam-vessels.

(3) The said coast-light dues shall be paid—

- (a) in the case of a vessel clearing out of a port in Sind, previous to the grant of port-clearance ; and
- (b) in the case of a vessel arriving from a port outside Sind at a port in Sind, immediately upon her arrival in such port :

Provided that, when coast-light dues have been paid, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, in the case of any vessel, no further coast-light dues shall be payable in respect of that vessel for a period of thirty days from the date on which such dues were paid.

Collection of coast-light dues, and grant of receipt therefor.

4. The Customs Collector shall levy the coast-light dues payable under section 3, and shall grant to the person paying the same a receipt in writing under his hand specifying —

- (a) the port at which the coast-light dues are paid ;
- (b) the amount paid ; and
- (c) the name, tonnage and other proper description of the vessel in respect of which the payment is made.

Master to report arrival of vessel.

5. Within twenty-four hours after the arrival in any port of a vessel in respect of which coast-light dues are payable under section 3, the master shall give notice in writing of such arrival to the Customs Collector.

Ascertainment of tonnage.

6. In order to ascertain the tonnage of any vessel in respect of which coast-light dues are payable under section 3, the following rules shall be observed, namely :—

- (a) Where the vessel is registered under any law for the time being in force in British India, the Customs Collector may require the owner or master, or any other person having possession of her register, to produce such register for inspection ; and, if any such owner, master or other person neglects or refuses to produce such register or otherwise to satisfy the Customs

Collector as to what is the true tonnage of the vessel in respect of which such coast-light dues are payable, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, and the Customs Collector may cause the vessel to be measured and the tonnage thereof to be ascertained; and in such case the owner or master shall also be liable to pay the expenses of such measurement and ascertainment.

(b) Where the vessel is not so registered, and the owner or master fails to satisfy the Customs Collector as to what is her true tonnage according to the mode of measurement prescribed by the law for regulating the measurement of British registered vessels for the time being in force, the Customs Collector shall cause the vessel to be measured and the tonnage thereof to be ascertained according to such mode as aforesaid; and in such case the owner or master shall be liable to pay the expenses of such measurement and ascertainment.

7. Where the master of any vessel refuses or neglects to pay to the Customs Collector on demand the amount of any coast-light dues or expenses payable under this Act in respect of such vessel, the Customs Collector may seize the vessel and the tackle, apparel and furniture belonging thereto, or any part thereof, and detain the same until the amount of such dues or expenses is paid; Recovery of coast-light dues, expenses and costs.

and in case any part of such dues or expenses, or of the costs of such seizure and detention, remains unpaid for the space of five days next after any seizure so made, the Customs Collector may cause the vessel or other thing so seized to be sold, and with the proceeds of the sale may satisfy the dues, expenses and costs (including the costs of sale) remaining unpaid, and shall, on demand, render the surplus (if any) to the master of the vessel.

8. The officer whose duty it is to grant a port-clearance for any vessel shall not grant such port-clearance until her master or some other person has paid, or secured to the satisfaction of the officer, the amount of all coast-light dues, expenses and costs payable in respect of the vessel under this Act, and of any fine imposed thereunder. No port-clearance to be granted until coast-light dues, expenses and costs are paid.

9. Whoever, being the master of a vessel, evades, or attempts to evade, the payment of any coast light dues, expenses or costs payable in respect of such vessel under this Act, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees. Penalty for evading payment of coast-light dues, expenses or costs.

Determination of dispute as to liability to pay coast-light dues, expenses or costs.

10. Where any dispute arises as to whether any coast-light dues, expenses or costs are payable in respect of any vessel under this Act or as to the amount of such dues, expenses or costs, the dispute shall, on application made in that behalf by either of the disputing parties, be heard and determined by any Magistrate exercising at the place where the dispute arises powers not less than those of a Magistrate of the second class; and the decision of such Magistrate shall be final.

Saving for certain vessels.

11. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to apply to any vessel belonging to, or in the service of, His Majesty or the Government, or to any vessel of war belonging to any Foreign Prince or State.

BOMBAY ACT No. IV of 1915.¹

[THE BOMBAY CITY SURVEY ACT, 1915.]

[7th October, 1915.]

An Act to provide for a survey of the Town and Island of Bombay.

Pr-amble. WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the survey and demarcation of land in the Town and Island of Bombay ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title and extent. 1. (1) This Act shall be called the Bombay City Survey Act, 1915 ;

(2) It extends to the Town and Island of Bombay.

Interpretation clause. 2. In this Act unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

" Survey." (a) " Survey " includes identification of boundaries and all other operations antecedent to, or connected with, survey :

" Superintendent." (b) " Superintendent " means Superintendent of Survey under this Act :

" Land." (c) " Land " includes anything attached to the earth or permanently fastened to anything attached to the earth :

" Holder." (d) " Holder ", in relation to any land, means the occupier of such land, or where rent is paid for such land, any person in receipt of rent for such land who does not pay rent to another person :

Explanation.— " Rent " in this clause does not include money paid for land to Government or to the Municipal Corporation of the City of Bombay or to the Trustees for the Improvement of the City of Bombay or to the Trustees of the Port of Bombay or to a fazendar, except when such money is paid by a person holding such land on a tenancy for a term of less than one year.

Government order ay and int sintendent- 3. (1) The Governor in Council may, whenever he thinks fit, order that a survey shall be made of the lands situated in the Town and Island of Bombay, and for such purpose may appoint a Superintendent of Survey and one or more Assistant Superintendents of Survey.

(2) The Assistant Superintendents shall exercise such powers as may be delegated to them by the Superintendent.

¹ For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Bombay Government Gazette, 1914, Pt VII, p. 1058; for Report of Select Committee, see ibid, 1915, Pt. VII, p. 105; and for Proceedings in Council, see ibid, 1915, Pt. VII, pp. 70 and 415.

4. The Superintendent or any other officer employed in the survey may enter, between the hours of sunrise and sunset, upon any land within the local limits aforesaid, without being liable to any legal proceedings whatsoever on account of such entry or of anything done on such land in pursuance of this Act :

Provided that no such entry shall be made unless a notice of the intention to make such entry has been posted at least twenty-four hours previously in some conspicuous manner on the land.

5. Before entering on any land for the purposes of survey, the Superintendent may cause a notice in writing under his hand to be served on the holder or occupier of the land about to be surveyed and on the holders or occupiers of conterminous lands, calling upon them to attend either personally or by agent on such land before him or before such officer as may be authorized by him in that behalf, within a specified time (which shall not be less than three days after the service of such notice), for the purpose of pointing out boundaries and of affording such information as may be needed for the purposes of this Act, and intimating that in the event of their failing to attend he or such officer will proceed with the survey in their absence.

Notice to be served on holders to attend.

6. After due service of notice under section 5, the Superintendent, or such officer as may be authorized by him, may proceed with the survey whether the persons upon whom notices have been served are present or not.

After service of notices Superintendent may proceed with survey. Survey map and register.

7. (1) The Superintendent shall prepare a map and a register of all lands which have been surveyed under this Act.

(2) To every piece of land separately shown on the map and entered in the register an indicative number shall be assigned, and the name of the person appearing to be the holder thereof at the time of the survey shall be entered in the register.

(3) Nothing contained in such map or register shall affect the rights of any person.

8. The Superintendent may at any time cause to be erected, on any land which is to be, or has been, surveyed under this Act, temporary or permanent boundary marks of such materials and in such number and manner as he may determine to be sufficient for the purpose of the survey :

Superintendent may erect boundary marks.

Provided that no permanent boundary mark shall be erected when the boundary is defined by a permanent building, wall or fence.

9. (1) When any temporary boundary mark has been erected under section 8, the Superintendent may cause a notice in writing under his hand to be served on the holder of the land whereon, or adjoining which, such boundary mark is situated requiring him to maintain such boundary mark till the survey has been completed.

(2) Should such holder not comply with such notice, the Superintendent may repair the boundary mark and expenses shall be recoverable from such holder as an arrear of land revenue under the provisions of the ¹Bombay City Land-revenue Act 1876. Dom. Act II of 1876.

survey-fee
may be charged.

10. (1) The holder of any land surveyed under this Act shall be liable to the payment of a survey-fee assessed on the area and rateable value of such land :

Provided that the aggregate amount of the survey-fees assessed under this section shall not be greater than one-half of the total cost of the survey.

(2) The amount of the survey-fee payable under sub-section (1) shall be regulated by the Collector in accordance with rules made by the Governor in Council under section 18 :

Provided that—

(a) no survey-fee shall be payable by Government or by the Municipal Corporation of the City of Bombay or by the Trustees for the Improvement of the City of Bombay or by the Trustees of the Port of Bombay ;

(b) the holder of any land of which the area and rateable value do not exceed such limit as may be prescribed by rule made by the Governor in Council under section 18 shall be exempt from the payment of any survey-fee in respect of that land ;

(c) no survey-fee shall be payable in respect of buildings and lands exclusively occupied for public worship or for charitable purposes which under the ²City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, are exempt from the levy of Bom. Act III of 1888. the general tax.

(d) Any survey-fee assessed in accordance with sub-sections (1) and (2) shall be payable within three months from the date of a notice to be served by the Collector upon the person liable therefor after the completion of the survey of the Town and Island of Bombay, and such survey-fee shall be leviable as an arrear of land revenue under the provisions of the ¹Bombay City Land-revenue Act, 1876. Bom. Act II of 1876.

¹Vol. II of this Code.

²Vol. III of this Code.

(4) Any person who has paid the survey-fee assessed on any land under this section shall be entitled to receive free of charge a certified extract from the map and a certified extract from the register prepared under section 7, so far as they relate to such land.

11. (1) After the survey of any part of the town has been completed, the Superintendent shall deposit with the Collector all maps, registers and other documents connected with the survey of such part. All documents connected with the survey to be sent to the Collector.

(2) Such deposit shall be notified in the Bombay Government Gazette, and any person interested in the survey may, at any time within two months from the date of such notification, inspect such maps, registers and other documents free of charge.

(3)* During such period the Collector may, if necessary and without prejudice to the rights of any of the parties concerned, cause the map or the register prepared under section 7 to be corrected free of charge.

12. (1) The map and register prepared under section 7 shall be maintained by the Collector, who shall cause the map to be revised and the entries in the register to be corrected from time to time as may be necessary, without prejudice to the rights of any person : Maintenance of survey maps and registers

Provided that no person shall for the purposes of this Act be required to give notice of the acquisition of any interest in land.

(2) The Collector may assess the cost of the revision of any part of the map and all contingent expenses on the land to which such part relates, and such cost shall be payable by the holder of such land, subject to the same exemption as is provided in section 10, sub-section (2), proviso (a), with reference to the payment of survey-fees and shall be leviable as an arrear of land revenue under the provisions of the ¹Bombay City Land-revenue Act, 1876.

Bom. Act
II of 1876.

13. Subject to rules made in this behalf by the Governor in Council under section 18, any officer acting under the orders of the Collector of Bombay may, for the purpose of revising any map prepared under this Act, exercise any of the powers of a Superintendent under this Act. Revision of maps.

14. Every notice required by this Act to be served on any person may be served— How notice may be served.

(a) by delivering the same to such person, or when such person cannot be found, by posting the same on some conspicuous part of the house in which such person usually resides or holds his office or carries on his business, or by delivering the same to an agent or servant of such person, or to a male adult member of his.

[THE BOMBAY BOILER INSPECTION ACT, 1917.]

[19th May, 1917.]

An Act to amend the law for the inspection and management of boilers in the Presidency of Bombay.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law for the inspection and management of steam boilers; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bombay Boiler Inspection Act, 1917.

Short title,
extent, and commence-

¹ Vol. II of this Code.

²For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Bombay Government Gazette, 1916, Pt. V, p. 466; for Report of Select Committee, see ibid., 1917, Pt. V, p. 166; and for Proceedings in Council, see ibid., 1917, Pt. V, pp. 68 and 268.

(2) It extends to the whole of the Presidency of Bombay.

(3) This section shall come into operation at once. The rest of the Act shall come into operation at once in the City of Bombay. The Governor in Council may, by notification in the Bombay Government Gazette, direct that the rest of the Act shall come into operation in any district or place, other than the City of Bombay, on such date as may be specified in such notification.

Limitation of application of Act.

2. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to apply to any boiler in any steam-vessel, or to any locomotive engine or boiler used upon or appertaining to any railway within the meaning of that word as defined in section 3, clause (4), of the Indian Railways Act, 1890, or to any boiler used exclusively for domestic purposes at atmospheric pressure, or to any boiler used upon any vehicle or class of vehicles which the Governor in Council may, by notification in the Bombay Government Gazette, specify in this behalf.

Interpretation clause.

3. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

- (a) "boiler" includes any closed vessel used expressly for generating steam under pressure for use outside such vessel and any mounting or other fitting attached to such vessel which is wholly or partly under pressure when steam is shut off;
- (b) "owner" includes also any person using a boiler as agent of the owner thereof and any person using a boiler which he has hired or obtained on loan from the owner thereof.

Inspection of Boilers.

Appointment
of Inspectors.

4. (1) The Governor in Council may from time to time appoint inspectors for the purposes of this Act and may appoint one of such inspectors to be Chief Inspector.

(2) The local extent of the duties of the inspectors and the mutual relations of inspectors shall be fixed from time to time by the Governor in Council.

(3) Subject to any rules for the time being in force under section 38, the Inspectors shall be under the control of the Collector of the place or district in which the boilers to be inspected by such inspectors are respectively situated.

Appointment
of commissions.

5. The Governor in Council shall, as occasion may require, appoint commissions, either generally or specially, for hearing appeals preferred by owners under section 14 and for determining questions submitted to them under section 17. Such commissions shall consist of such person or persons, and their appointment shall endure for such term, as the Governor in Council shall direct.

6. (1) Subject to the provisos to this section, it shall not be lawful for the owner of any boiler—

(i) to use the same, or to permit the same to be used, unless a certificate shall have been duly granted in respect thereof in the manner hereinafter provided, or

Owner not to use a boiler without a certificate except in certain cases.

(ii) to continue to use the same, or to permit the use thereof to be continued, after the period for which any such certificate shall have been granted has expired, or

(iii) to work the same, or to permit the same to be worked, at a higher pressure than that allowed by such certificate :

Provided that—

(a) in the case of a boiler in respect of which no certificate has been previously granted, the inspector shall, if he is unable to issue a certificate at once, grant to the owner, within 48 hours next after his examination of the boiler, a provisional order in writing specifying the pressure at which such boiler may, in his opinion, pending the issue, or refusal of a certificate, be worked ; and it shall be lawful for the owner to work the boiler in accordance with such provisional order until a certificate in respect thereof has been granted or refused or until the expiry of the period specified in such provisional order, whichever period is less ;

(b) the owner of a boiler who holds in respect thereof a certificate as required by this section, and who, before the expiry of the said period of such certificate, gives notice of his intention to continue to use the boiler after the expiry of the said period, may, unless after examining the boiler the inspector by an order in writing directs that its use be entirely discontinued, continue to use the boiler or to permit the use thereof until a renewed certificate has been granted or refused, but shall not use the boiler or permit the use thereof at any pressure higher—

(i) than that allowed by the expired certificate, or

(ii) than that allowed by any provisional order given in writing by the inspector after examining the boiler.

(2) No provisional order granted under this section shall have any force in respect of any boiler for a longer period than six months or after a certificate or a renewed certificate has been either granted or refused in respect of such boiler, or after the receipt by the owner of such boiler from the Collector or the inspector or from any person generally or specially empowered in writing by the Collector in this behalf of a requisition in writing for the surrender of such provisional order.

Owner not to work a boiler without a competent engineer in charge.

7. Subject to the provisions to this section, it shall not be lawful for the owner of any boiler to work the same or permit the same to be worked at any time except whilst he has in his employ as engineer in direct and immediate management and charge thereof a person who is a fit and proper person to manage and be in charge of the same :

Provided that—

(a) a person employed to manage and be in charge of two or more sets of boilers belonging to the same owner and so situated that no one of them is more than a thousand feet apart from any other of them, may, notwithstanding their distance from each other, be deemed to be in direct and immediate management and charge of all such boilers ;

(b) the restrictions contained in this section shall not apply to the owner of a boiler of such capacity and used for such purpose as may be specified by the Governor in Council by notification in the Bombay Government Gazette.

Boilers to be registered.

8. (1) The owner of any boiler who desires to use the same shall, if it is unregistered, cause it to be registered.

(2) The owner of a boiler may give notice in writing to the inspector that he desires to have the same registered, whereupon the inspector shall register such boiler and shall allot to it a number corresponding to the number of the entry concerning it in the register of boilers. Such number shall be called the registry number of the boiler. It shall be communicated to the owner, and shall, within such reasonable period as the inspector may direct, be permanently marked upon the boiler by the owner thereof so as to be plainly visible, and in such manner as the Governor in Council may from time to time prescribe.

Owner of boiler to give notice to inspector of intention to use boiler.

9. (1) If the owner of a boiler does not hold in respect thereof a certificate which is at the time in force, he shall, after causing the boiler to be registered or giving a notice under sub-section (2) of section 8 in relation thereto, and before using or continuing to use the said boiler, give the notice prescribed in sub-section (2) or sub-section (3).

(2) If such boiler is situate in a place for which an inspector has been expressly appointed by the Governor in Council, such owner shall give notice to such inspector of his intention to use or to continue to use the said boiler and of his desire to obtain a certificate. The inspector to whom such notice is given shall appoint a time between sunrise and sunset and within four days after the receipt of such notice, for the examination of such boiler, and at such time shall carefully examine such boiler and every appurtenance closely attached thereto.

(3) If such boiler is not situate in a place for which an inspector has been expressly appointed by the Governor in Council, the owner shall, before using or continuing the use of the same, give notice to the Chief Inspector and to the Collector of the district in which it is situate of his intention to use or to continue to use the same, and the Chief Inspector shall cause an examination as aforesaid to be made by an inspector with the least possible delay and within twenty days after the receipt of such notice, and shall inform the owner of the date on which the said examination will take place.

(4) Every person giving notice under this section shall simultaneously pay to the Collector the fees prescribed for the examination by a rule made under section 38.

(5) If a boiler is procured in, or imported into, the city of Bombay or Karachi for use in any place, beyond the said cities, in which this Act is at the time in force, the owner of such boiler may, at his option, cause the same to be registered, numbered, and examined for a certificate under the foregoing provisions of this section before it is removed from either of the said cities. Such certificate shall operate for a period of six months only from the date thereof :

Provided that, in the case of a portable, vehicular, or other boiler, not requiring re-erection or building in brick-work and not exceeding twenty horse power nominal, procured in or imported into the city of Bombay or Karachi and examined for a certificate under this sub-section, the certificate may, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 11, operate for a period not exceeding twelve months from the date of issue.

10. (1) The owner or person in charge of any boiler so to be examined shall—

Facilities to be afforded for examination.

(a) afford to the inspector all reasonable facilities for such examination, and all such information as may reasonably be required by him ;

(b) provide, in the case of a new boiler about to be registered, a dimensioned drawing, specification and certificate of tests of material for the boiler, such certificate or a copy thereof being duly signed by the makers of the boiler and bearing a number corresponding with the makers' number of the boiler;

(c) previously arrange that—

(i) the boiler shall be empty and cool, and shall be cleaned inside and outside;

(ii) the fire-flues shall be swept;

(iii) the fire bars and fire-bridges shall be removed;

(iv) the flow-off and other cocks and valves shall be taken apart for the purpose of examination;

(d) if required by the inspector, cause any lagging, brick-work or masonry in contact with the boiler to be removed;

(e) during the examination, keep the boiler effectively disconnected from any steam or hot water communication with any other boiler.

(2) The provision as to disconnection contained in clause (e) shall extend to every case wherein a person is sent, or with the owner's assent goes, into a boiler for any purpose connected therewith.

Grant and renewal of certificates.

11. (1) If the inspector is satisfied that the boiler and the appurtenances closely attached thereto are in good condition, and if the registry number of the boiler is properly marked thereon in accordance with sub-section (2) of section 8, the inspector shall give to the owner a certificate to that effect.

(2) Every certificate so granted shall be renewed by the inspector from time to time, if he is satisfied, after re-examining the boiler and the appurtenances closely attached thereto under the provisions of section 9, that the same are in good condition and that the registry number of the boiler is properly marked thereon as aforesaid.

(3) Every original or renewed certificate granted under this section shall be in the form of and contain the particulars specified in schedule A. Except as is otherwise provided in sub-section (5) of section 9, every such certificate shall be granted for such period not exceeding twelve months as the owner of the boiler shall desire, unless it shall appear to the inspector improbable that the boiler and the appurtenances closely attached thereto will remain in good condition for so long a period, in which case the certificate shall be granted for such shorter period as the inspector in his discretion deems fit.

(4) The maximum working pressure at which the boiler may be worked, specified in every original certificate granted under this section, shall be determined by the inspector in accordance with the rules under this Act.

12. A duplicate of any certificate granted under section 11 which is at the time in force shall be granted by the Chief Inspector on the application of the owner of the boiler, if the Chief Inspector is satisfied that the duplicate is required for a bond file purpose and the fee prescribed by the rule under section 38 is paid. Duplicate certificate.

13. (1) The Chief Inspector may withdraw any certificate granted under section 11 if there is reason to believe that, since the granting of such certificate, the boiler in respect whereof it was granted has sustained injury or has ceased to be in good condition. Certificate may be withdrawn or refused in certain cases.

(2) After such withdrawal the boiler in respect of which the certificate has been withdrawn shall not be worked again until a further examination has been made and a fresh certificate granted for such period and pressure, not exceeding that specified in the certificate before its withdrawal, as the Chief Inspector in his discretion may deem fit.

(3) An inspector, with the approval of the Chief Inspector, may refuse to renew or may withdraw a certificate granted under section 11 for a boiler which, by reason of the use of foul or sedimentary feed water, or of insufficient cleaning, has sustained injury by over-heating or fracture and which, in the opinion of the inspector, is likely to receive further injury if continued to be worked.

(4) But no refusal to renew and no withdrawal of a certificate under the provisions of sub-section (3) shall be made unless the owner of the boiler has—

(a) received due warning to the effect that a continuance of the conditions of working complained of is likely to lead to further injury to the boiler, and

(b) neglected, within a period of three months from the date of issue of such warning, to take such steps for the removal of the conditions of working complained of as may be deemed reasonable.

(5) A certificate withheld or withdrawn under the provisions of sub-section (3) shall not be granted or returned to the owner of the boiler until the Chief Inspector is satisfied, from inspection or inquiry, that the precautions taken are reasonably sufficient.

14: If an inspector refuses to give a certificate or a renewed certificate to Appeal the owner of any boiler, or refuses to give the same for the full period applied for or for the pressure desired, or withdraws a certificate or reduces the amount, of pressure specified in any certificate or the period for which such certificate has been issued, he shall be bound to give to such owner, within forty-eight hours, his reasons for such refusal, in writing, and any owner deeming himself aggrieved by the decision of the inspector may, within one month from the date of the said refusal, lodge with the Collector of the place or district in which the boiler is situate an appeal to be heard by a commission appointed under section 5.

Determination of the appeal.

15. (1) The owner's petition of appeal shall be forthwith forwarded by the Collector to the commission, and the said commission shall, if the boiler be situated—

- (a) in the city of Bombay, then within four days,
- (b) in Aden, then within one month, and
- (c) elsewhere, then within ten days, after the date of the receipt of the appeal, inquire into and determine such appeal.

(2) The commission may either reject the appeal or grant the owner a certificate for such period not exceeding twelve months and for such pressure as it thinks fit.

(3) The inquiry shall be held in public, and the decision of the commission shall be final.

When commission may award costs.

16. (1) If the commission is of opinion that the appeal is unfounded or frivolous, it may award any sum not exceeding one hundred and fifty rupees to be paid by the owner as costs.

(2) Any sum so awarded by the commission shall be recoverable by the Collector from the owner as an arrear of land revenue.

Revocation of certificates by commission.

17. (1) Any commission appointed under section 5 may, after such inquiry as shall seem just, revoke any certificate granted under section 11 or section 15, if there is reason to believe that such certificate has been fraudulently obtained or erroneously granted, or has been granted without sufficient examination.

(2) After such revocation, the boiler in respect whereof the certificate has been revoked shall not again be used until a further examination shall have been made and a certificate granted by the inspector with the countersignature of the said commission, or, if the commission consists of more than two persons, of a majority thereof or of their successors in office.

18. (1) It shall be lawful for an inspector at any time to enter any place or building, in which he has reason to believe that a boiler is being used, for the purpose of inspecting such boiler, whether the same be under pressure or not, or of satisfying himself that the provisions of section 6 or section 7 are being observed in respect of it. Inspector may enter any place where a boiler is used.

(2) It shall be lawful for the inspector to order the working of a boiler to be stopped only when that shall, in his opinion, be indispensable for the proper examination of the boiler. The reasons for any such stoppage shall be given in writing by the inspector to the owner, on the owner's demand, concurrently with the order for stoppage, and the owner shall thereon become subject to the provisions of section 10.

19. If at any time during the period for which a provisional order under section 6 or a certificate under section 11, section 15, or section 17 has been granted, any structural alteration or renewal is made in any part of the boiler to which such provisional order or certificate relates, it shall be the duty of the owner of such boiler to give notice in writing of such alteration to the person specified in sub-section (5) of section 20, either before the same is commenced or whilst it is in progress. Owner to report alterations to boiler.

20. (1) It shall be the duty of every owner or person in charge of a boiler to report in writing to the person specified in sub-section (5), within twelve hours of its occurrence, every accident to the boiler or to any apparatus attached thereto, which is calculated to weaken the strength of such boiler or to render it liable to explode. Occurrence of accident to boiler to be reported.

(2) Every such report shall contain a true description of the nature of the accident and of the injury thereby caused, sufficient to enable the person to whom it is made to judge of the gravity of the accident.

(3) The owner or person in charge of the boiler shall be bound to answer truly, to the best of his knowledge and ability, every question put to him in writing by the person to whom the report is made as to the cause, nature and extent of the accident.

(4) Elsewhere than in the city of Bombay, the Collector of the district, or any person whom the said Collector generally or specially authorizes in this behalf, may, after visiting the scene of any such accident as aforesaid, by an order in writing, direct that the use of the boiler be discontinued until it has been examined and certified by an inspector as fit for use and the owner and person in charge of the boiler shall be bound to obey such order.

(5) The persons to whom reports under this section and notices under the last preceding section shall be made or given are, in the city of Bombay, the Chief Inspector, and, elsewhere, the Collector of the district or such person as the said Collector appoints to receive the same.

Owner to produce provisional order or certificates when called upon.

21. (1) The owner of any boiler who has obtained a provisional order or certificate therefor shall, at all reasonable times during the period for which such provisional order or certificate is in force, be bound to produce the same when called upon to do so by the inspector, or by the Collector of Bombay or any Presidency Magistrate in the city of Bombay, or by the Collector of the district elsewhere, or by any person generally or specially authorised in writing by such Collector or Magistrate in the said city or by such Collector elsewhere, to demand its production.

(2) A person who becomes owner of a boiler during the period for which a provisional order or certificate therefor is in force shall be entitled to receive the provisional order or certificate from the preceding owner and shall be subject to the provisions of sub-section (1).

Engineers' Certificates.

Examinations of engineers.

22. Examinations shall be held periodically, by a board of examiners, at such places and on such dates as the Governor in Council shall determine, of persons who desire to qualify as engineers for the management of boilers.

Examiners to be appointed by Government.

23. The Governor in Council shall from time to time nominate competent persons to be members of the board of examiners for the said examinations. In no case shall an inspector appointed under this Act be a member of such board.

Certificate of competency.

24. (1) Every applicant for examination who is declared by the said board to have passed an examination shall receive a certificate of competency in accordance with the board's decision as to his qualifications, which shall be signed by the members of the board.

(2) Certificates of competency may be of different classes, and a certificate of each class shall qualify the holder thereof to manage or be in charge of a boiler of such capacity or kind as the Governor in Council may from time to time direct in rules under section 38.

Certain other certificates to be available in proof of qualifications.

25. (1) If any engineer is in possession of a certificate of competency granted by any competent authority in British India, or in the United Kingdom, or in any British Colony, he shall be entitled to receive a certificate of competency as aforesaid, without undergoing examination.

(2) The Governor in Council may from time to time determine what authorities shall be deemed competent for the purpose of this section.

(3) The certificate granted under this section shall be of such class as the board of examiners, or a majority of the members of the said board, on a consideration of the nature of the certificate in the engineer's possession, shall determine.

26. (1) The Collector of Bombay may, in the case of a person who is employed for the purpose of erecting and afterwards supervising the working of new engines and boilers at a factory situate within the Presidency of Bombay, on the production of satisfactory testimonials, grant a temporary certificate of service.

(2) Such temporary certificate shall be signed by the Collector of Bombay and shall —

- (a) be valid only in respect of the boilers at the place named in the certificate;
- (b) remain in force for such period not exceeding two years from the date of issue, as may be determined by the Collector.

27. (1) If by means of any inquiry conducted under the provisions of this Act or of the rules framed thereunder it shall be established to the satisfaction of the Governor in Council that any engineer possessing a certificate of competency granted under section 24 or 25, or a certificate of service granted under section 26, is incompetent, or is addicted to drunkenness, or has been guilty of any serious misconduct or negligence, the Governor in Council may cancel such certificate, or suspend the same for such time as he shall deem fit.

(2) The holder of such certificate shall, on demand by the persons charged with the inquiry, forthwith place in the hands of such persons his certificate to abide the result of such inquiry.

(3) When any holder of a certificate shall have been called on to deposit the same under sub-section (2), or when any inquiry into his conduct shall have been directed by the Governor in Council, if such holder shall fail to deposit his certificate, or shall withdraw beyond the limits of the Presidency of Bombay, the Governor in Council may notify such failure or withdrawal by notification giving a statement of the circumstances so far as known. Upon the issue of such notification it shall be competent to the Governor in Council to cancel the certificate of such engineer:

Provided that the Governor in Council may, at any time, upon such engineer satisfactorily explaining such failure or withdrawal, revoke any such order of cancellation and regrant to such engineer without examination the certificate so cancelled, and a certificate so regranted shall have the same effect as if it had been granted after examination.

28. A duplicate of every certificate of competency or service granted under this Act shall be kept and recorded in such manner as the Governor in Council shall direct; and all orders made under section 27 for cancelling or suspending any certificate shall be from time to time entered on the record containing such duplicates.

Duplicate of certificate to be given.

29. Whenever any engineer proves to the satisfaction of the Governor in Council that he has, without fault on his part, lost or been deprived of any certificate granted to him under this Act, a duplicate of the certificate to which by the record so kept as aforesaid he appears to be entitled shall be furnished to him, which shall have for all purposes the same validity as the original certificate.

Who is to be deemed a fit and proper person to manage a boiler.

30. Subject to the proviso to section 40, no person who does not possess a certificate of competency or service granted under section 24, 25, 26, or 29 shall be deemed a fit and proper person to manage or be in charge of a boiler: and no holder of any such certificate shall be deemed a fit and proper person to manage or be in charge of any boiler except to the extent of his qualification indicated by his said certificate.

Penalties.

For failing to give notice of alteration, or refusing to produce order or certificate, or failing to report accident.

31. Any owner of a boiler who—

- (a) fails to give notice, as required by section 19 of any structural alteration or renewal thereof,
- (b) refuses or neglects to produce the provisional order or certificate which he has obtained therefor, when duly called upon so to do under section 21, and every owner or person in charge of a boiler who—

- (c) fails to report, as required by section 20, any accident of the kind mentioned in that section, shall, for every such omission, refusal or neglect, be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

For using
without order or certificate or without competent engineer in charge, or at too high pressure.

32. (1) The owner of any boiler who shall —

- (a) use the same or permit it to be used without a provisional order or certificate duly obtained and in force in respect thereof,
- (b) work the same or permit the same to be worked at any time, except whilst he has in his employ as engineer in direct and immediate management and charge thereof a person who is a fit and proper person to manage and be in charge of the same, and any such owner or any person who shall,
- (c) work the same, or permit it to be worked, without a provisional order or certificate duly obtained and in force in respect thereof or in contravention of an order for discontinuing its use made under sub-section (4) of section 20, or at a higher pressure than that allowed by any provisional order or certificate duly obtained and in force in respect thereof, shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day or part of a day that he shall so use or work the said boiler, or permit the same to be so used or worked.

(2) And if the said owner or person shall continue so to use or work the boiler, or to permit the same to be so used or worked after such fine shall have been imposed, he shall be held to have committed a separate offence, and shall be punished with a further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for each day or part of a day after the first conviction during which the offence is continued and in like manner after each subsequent conviction.

33. Whoever tampers with the safety valve of a boiler so as to render it inoperative or causes it to be loaded over the pressure declared in the provisional order or certificate in force for the boiler shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees. For tampering with the safety valve of a boiler.

34. (1) Whoever removes, alters, defaces, renders invisible or otherwise tampers with the registry number marked on a boiler shall, for every such act, be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees. For tampering with registry number of a boiler.

(2) Whoever fraudulently marks upon a boiler a registry number which has not been duly allotted to it under this Act shall be punished with imprisonment which may extend to two years or with fine or with both. For fraudulently marking a registry number on a boiler.

35. A person who, being bound to deposit his certificate under the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 27, shall refuse or omit to do so, shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees. For refusing or omitting to deposit certificate in accordance with section 27 (2).

36. All offences against this Act shall be cognizable in the city of Bombay by a Presidency Magistrate, and elsewhere by a Magistrate of the First Class. Cognizance of offences.

37. No charge shall be brought against any person of any offence punishable under this Act except within six months after the commission of the offence, nor shall any such charge be brought except with the sanction or under the direction of the Collector of the place or district in which such offence is alleged to have been committed. Charges within what period to be brought.

Miscellaneous.

38. (1) The Governor in Council may, by notification in the Bombay Rules Government Gazette, make rules not inconsistent with this Act for—

- (a) setting the duties and emoluments of commissions, inspectors and examiners appointed under this Act, and regulating the control to be exercised by Collectors over inspectors;
- (b) fixing the fees to be levied for inspection of boilers under sections 9 and 20 and issue of duplicate certificates under section 12 at such rates not exceeding those prescribed in schedule B as the Governor in Council thinks fit;

- (c) prescribing the manner of admeasurement and quantities to be used in determining, for rating purposes under this Act, the nominal horse power of engines and boilers ;
- (d) regulating the submission of appeals under section 14, the reference and cognizance of matters under section 17, the procedure to be followed in the hearing of the appeals and inquiry into the matters aforesaid, and the conduct of the examinations to be held under section 22, and providing for interpretation in the case of candidates unacquainted with English ;
- (e) prescribing the qualifications to be required of candidates at the said examinations, the fees to be paid by them, the forms of the certificates to be granted to them, and the capacity or kind of boiler of which each such certificate shall qualify the holder thereof to be in charge, and the extent to which each such certificate shall qualify the holder to be in charge of such boiler, and prescribing also the fees to be paid for the duplicate certificates furnished under section 29 ;
- (f) providing for inquiry into an allegation of drunkenness, misconduct or negligence on the part of the holder of a certificate of competency or service ;
- (g) generally for giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) Any rule made under this section shall be subject to previous publication, and shall not be finally considered until the expiry of a period of three months from the date of such publication.

Recovery and disposal of fees, etc.

39. (1) Any fee lawfully due under this Act which has not been paid on demand duly made shall be recoverable by the Collector as an arrear of land revenue.

(2) All fees, costs and penalties levied under this Act shall be disposed of in such manner as the Governor in Council shall from time to time direct.

on each day as may be required by the school committee with the approval of the prescribed educational authority ;

- (2) "child" means a child whose age is not less than six and not more than eleven years ;
- (3) "parent" includes a guardian and any person who has the actual custody of a child ;
- (4) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made by the local government under this Act ;
- (5) "primary education" means such education as is for the time being recognized as such by the local government ;
- (6) "recognized primary school" means a school (or a department of a school) in which instruction in primary education is given and which is for the time being recognized by the prescribed educational authority ;
- (7) "school committee" means a committee appointed under section 28 of the principal Act.

Issue of notification making primary education compulsory.

3. (1) The municipality in any municipal district constituted under the principal Act may with the previous sanction of the local government declare by notification that the primary education of boys or of girls or of children of both sexes shall be compulsory in such district from a date to be mentioned in the notification ; provided that, where a notification has been issued under this section with reference to children of one sex only, the municipality may with the like sanction issue a subsequent notification with reference to children of the other sex.

(2) A notification under this section shall be published in the Bombay Government Gazette and shall be posted at the municipal office and at such other places, if any, as the municipality shall deem necessary.

Municipality to make provision for primary education.

4. A notification shall not be issued under section 3 unless the municipality satisfies the local government that it is in a position to make and will make adequate provision in municipal or other recognized schools for free and compulsory primary education.

Resolution to be passed before issue of notification.

5. A notification shall not be issued under section 3 unless the municipality has so determined by resolution passed at a general meeting specially called in this behalf and unless such resolution has been supported by at least two-thirds of the councillors present at the meeting and by at least one-half of the whole number of councillors.

School committee to be appointed.

6. Where a notification has been issued in any municipal district under section 3, the municipality shall, if a school committee has not already been appointed, appoint such committee, and it shall be the duty of such committee subject to the provisions of this Act and the principal Act, to enforce the provisions of this Act respecting the attendance of children at school and the employment of children.

7. Where a notification under section 3 is in force in any municipal district, the parent of every child to which such notification applies shall, in the absence of a reasonable excuse as hereinafter provided, and if such parent and child ordinarily reside in such municipal district, cause such child to attend a recognized primary school in such district.

8. A parent shall be deemed to have a reasonable excuse for failure to cause a child to attend a recognized primary school in any of the following cases :—

Duty of parents to cause children to attend school.

Meaning of "reasonable excuse."

- (a) where the child is prevented from attending school by sickness, infirmity or other unavoidable cause ;
- (b) where the child is receiving, otherwise than in a recognized primary school, instruction which in the opinion of the school committee is efficient, or has already completed his primary education ;
- (c) where there is no recognized primary school within one mile, measured according to the nearest road, from the residence of the child.

9. Where the school committee is satisfied that the parent of any child who is bound under the provisions of section 7 to cause such child to attend a recognized primary school, has failed to do so, the school committee, after giving the parent an opportunity of being heard and after such enquiry as it considers necessary, may pass an order directing the parent to cause such child to attend a recognized primary school on and from a date which shall be specified in the order.

Issue of attendance order.

10. (1) Any parent against whom an order with reference to a child has been passed under section 9 and who fails to comply with the provisions of section 7 with respect to such child on and after the date specified in such order, shall, on conviction before a magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding five rupees.

Penalty for failure to cause child to attend

(2) No court shall take cognizance of an offence under this section except on the complaint of the school committee.

11. (1) Whoever knowingly takes into his employment, either on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person, any child in respect of whom the provisions of section 7 apply, so as to interfere with the efficient instruction of such child, shall, on conviction before a magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five rupees.

Penalty for employingchild liable for compulsory education.

(2) No court shall take cognizance of an offence under this section except on the complaint of the school committee, and before making any complaint under this section against any person, the school committee shall, unless such person has previously been convicted under this section in respect of the same child, cause a warning to be given to such person.

School committee may authorize person to appear.

12. A complaint to a magistrate under section 10 or section 11 may be made on behalf of the school committee by such person as may be authorized by the committee in this behalf.

Taxation for the purposes of this Act.

13. For the purposes of this Act the municipality may, under the provisions of the principal Act, impose any fresh tax or increase any tax which is already levied in the municipal district.

Remission of fees.

14. Where a notification under section 3 is in force in any municipal district, no fee shall be charged in any municipal school in respect of the primary education of any child of the sex specified in such notification whose age does not exceed eleven years.

Power to exempt particular classes or communities. Withdrawal of notification on default.

15. The local government may by notification in the Bombay Government Gazette exempt any particular class or community from the operation of this Act.

16. Where the local government is of opinion that any municipality has made default in any of the requirements of this Act, the local government, after giving the municipality an opportunity of furnishing an explanation, may by notification in the Bombay Government Gazette cancel any notification which has been issued under section 3.

Fines to be credited to municipality.

17. All fines levied by any magistrate in respect of any offence against the provisions of this Act in any municipal district shall be credited to the municipal fund.

Rules.

18. (1) The local government may by notification in the Bombay Government Gazette make rules for the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, such rules may be made—

- (a) prescribing the educational authority by whom the duties imposed by section 2, sub-sections (1) and (6), shall be performed;
- (b) prescribing the manner in which application may be made for sanction to issue a notification under section 3;
- (c) determining generally what shall be considered to be adequate provision for free and compulsory primary education under section 4;
- (d) requiring the municipality to prepare and publish a register of children liable for compulsory primary education in the municipal district; and
- (e) when the local government determines to share the cost of providing free and compulsory primary education,—specifying the extent to which the cost thereof shall be borne by the local government.

(b) where the conveyance is licensed to carry passengers, the number of passengers which it is licensed to carry, shall be clearly inscribed in such manner as the Commissioner of Police may direct.

Licenses for public conveyances.

4. (1) Such licenses shall remain in force for the licensing year, unless sooner determined under the provisions of this Act, and shall be renewable.

(2) Such licenses shall contain the following and such other particulars and conditions as the Commissioner of Police may prescribe :—

(a) the full name and address of the licensee ;

(b) the date on which the license was granted and the date on which it will expire by efflux of time ;

(c) the local area for which the license is granted ;

(d) the number and class of the conveyance ;

(e) the number of horses or other animals (if any) by which it is to be drawn ;

(f) the number of passengers (if any) which it may carry.

(3) Such licenses shall not be transferred by the licensee to any other person without the sanction of the Commissioner of Police and if transferred without such sanction shall thereupon become void. Such sanction when granted shall be endorsed on the license.

Grounds on which license may be refused or cancelled.

5. (1) The Commissioner of Police may refuse to grant a license for a public conveyance if in his opinion the conveyance is insufficiently fund or is otherwise unfit for the purpose for which it is intended.

(2) The Commissioner of Police may refuse to renew, and may at any time suspend or cancel, a license for a public conveyance on either of the foregoing grounds, or if in his opinion—

(a) the licensee has committed a breach of any provision of this Act or of a rule made under this Act or of a condition of the license, or

(ii) a conveyance licensed for carrying goods has been used for carrying passengers.

(3) When refusing to renew, or suspending or cancelling a license for a public conveyance, the Commissioner of Police may erase the inscription made thereon in accordance with this Act.

6. (1) When granting or renewing a license for a public conveyance, and at other times when necessary, the Commissioner of Police shall cause the particulars required by clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (2) of section 3 to be painted or otherwise clearly inscribed upon the conveyance. Number, etc., to be inscribed on conveyance.

(2) No fee shall be charged for any inscription made under the foregoing sub-section when it is made at the time when the license is granted or at the annual renewal of the license, but when such inscription is made at any other time a fee at one-half of the rate chargeable for the grant of a license for a public conveyance under section 7, sub-section (1), shall be charged.

7. (1) For the grant of a license for a public conveyance a fee shall be charged at such rate as the Commissioner of Police shall prescribe. Fees for public conveyance licenses.

(c) the local area for which the license is granted ;

(d) the class of public conveyance which the licensee is licensed to drive.

Grounds on which driver's license may be refused or cancelled.

12. (1) The Commissioner of Police may refuse to grant a license to a driver if in his opinion such driver is unfit on account of youth, infirmity, bad character or any other reason to pursue the occupation of driver of a public conveyance.

(2) The Commissioner of Police may refuse to renew, and may at any time suspend or cancel, a driver's license on the foregoing grounds or if the holder has committed a breach of any provision of this Act or of a rule made under this Act or of a condition of the license.

Drivers' badges.

13. (1) When granting a license to a driver the Commissioner of Police shall provide him with a metal badge bearing the number of the license.

(2) Every driver who has received such badge shall wear the same on a conspicuous part of his dress at all times when pursuing his occupation as driver.

(3) No driver who has received such badge shall permit any other person to wear the same : provided that any person, other than the driver to whom a badge has been given by the Commissioner of Police, who shall wear such badge shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to wear it with such driver's permission.

14. (1) For the grant of a license to a driver a fee shall be charged at such rate as the Commissioner of Police shall prescribe. Fees for drivers' licenses.

(2) For the renewal of such license a fee at one-half of the rate chargeable under the foregoing sub-section shall be charged.

Provisions relating to licensees.

15. Every license which has been suspended or cancelled shall be returned by the licensee to the Commissioner of Police within twenty-four hours after the suspension or cancellation thereof. Licenses when suspended or cancelled to be returned.

Any licensee of a public conveyance who shall, when the same is used for the purpose of a public conveyance, permit any person to act as driver thereof other than a driver duly licensed under this Act, or who shall, when such conveyance is used for the purpose aforesaid, permit the same to be drawn by a horse other than a horse for which a license is in force under this Act, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

produce public conveyance or horse for inspection.

25. Whoever, being the licensee of a public conveyance or horse, shall fail to produce such conveyance or horse for inspection when required to do so by the Commissioner of Police shall be punishable with fine which may extend to twenty rupees.

Offences by drivers of public conveyances.

26. (1) Whoever shall act as driver of a public conveyance without a driver's license granted by the Commissioner of Police in this behalf and for the time being in force, or without a badge granted to him by the Commissioner of Police or, when acting as such driver, shall fail to wear such badge on a conspicuous part of his dress; and

(2) Whoever, being the driver of a public conveyance, shall—

- (a) permit any other person to use his license or badge;

- (b) permit more passengers to be carried in a public conveyance than it is licensed to carry ;
 - (c) conceal or permit to be concealed from public view the inscription made on a public conveyance in accordance with this Act, or prevent or attempt to prevent any person taking note of such inscription ;
 - (d) permit any person to be carried, without the express consent of the hirer, in a public conveyance the whole of which has been hired by any person ;
 - (e) fail to produce, on demand by a police officer, the license granted to him under section 11 or a list of the legal rates of fares as required by this Act ;
 - (f) fail to produce, on demand by a hirer of, or passenger travelling in, a public conveyance a list of the legal rates of fares for such conveyance as required by this Act ;
 - (g) refuse or neglect to give way, if he conveniently can, to any private conveyance, or obstruct or hinder the driver of any other public conveyance in taking up or setting down any person into or from such other public conveyance ;
 - (h) be intoxicated at any time while pursuing his occupation as driver ;
 - (i) make use of insulting or abusive language or gesture ;
 - (j) refuse to obey the reasonable orders of any person hiring a public conveyance of which he is in charge ;

- shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

27. Any licensee

- (a) who shall fail to return a license which has been suspended or cancelled to the Commissioner of Police within twenty-four hours after the suspension or cancellation thereof, or

Failure to return license or to notify address.

(b) who, after changing his residence, shall fail to give notice thereof in writing signed by himself to the Commissioner of Police within one week after such change has taken place, or

(c) who shall contravene any condition of his license,— shall be punishable with fine which may extend to twenty rupees.

Injury to public conveyance.

28. Any person using a public conveyance who shall wilfully or negligently injure the same shall be punishable with fine which may extend to twenty rupees, and shall also pay the owner of such conveyance such compensation as the Magistrate may direct, and such compensation shall be leviable as a fine.

Compensation payable by driver causing damage.

29. The driver of any public conveyance who shall, by negligence or misconduct, cause any hurt or damage shall, in addition to any punishment to which he may be liable by law, pay the complainant such reasonable compensation as the Magistrate may direct, and such compensation shall be leviable as a fine.

Procedure.

Arrest by police.

30. Any police officer may arrest without warrant any person who has committed any offence under this Act, and may seize and detain any conveyance or horse in relation to which such offence has been committed.

Procedure in case of dispute.

31. (1) In case of any dispute between the hirer and driver of a public conveyance, either party may require the other to proceed forthwith to the nearest Magistrate's Court, where the dispute shall be determined in a summary manner by the Magistrate then sitting.

(2) If no Magistrate is then sitting, either party may require the other to proceed to the nearest police officer of rank not below that of inspector who shall, if necessary, arrange for the hearing of the case at the next sitting of the Court.

(3) On failure of either party to appear before the Magistrate in pursuance of a requisition under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), or to attend the Court at any subsequent sitting to which the case may be adjourned, the Magistrate may decide the case ex parte and his decision shall be binding on both parties.

(4) Provided that, if the hirer is about to leave the City of Bombay, a police officer to whom reference has been made under sub-section (2) may, after hearing both parties, require the hirer to deposit such sum, if any, as appears to be due by him, and, if any compensation appears to be due under section 28, an additional sum of ten rupees, and the hirer shall not be required to attend the Magistrate's Court. The police officer shall report the dispute to the Magistrate and the Magistrate may award the driver such sum, if any, not being in excess of the amount deposited by the hirer, as he considers just, and if any offence appears to have been committed, shall inquire into the same according to law. In either case where any surplus remains of the deposit made by the hirer, the Magistrate shall give notice hereof to the hirer and return it to him on demand.

(5) Where the Magistrate is satisfied that one party had no reasonable ground for requiring the other party to proceed to his Court or to the nearest police officer, he may direct the former party to pay to the latter such compensation not exceeding fifty rupees as he thinks fit, and such compensation shall be leviable as a fine.

32. (1) When a complaint is made before a Magistrate against a driver of a public conveyance under this Act, the Magistrate may, if the driver fails to appear, summon the licensee of such conveyance to appear and produce the driver. Licensee may be required to produce driver : penalty.

(2) If the licensee after being duly summoned fails without reasonable excuse to appear or to produce the driver he shall be punishable with fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

33. If any person who has hired a public conveyance refuses to pay the legal fare thereof, the Magistrate may order payment of such fare and also of reasonable compensation for loss of time ; such fare and compensation shall be leviable as a fine. Refusal to pay fare.

Miscellaneous.

34. (1) All property left in any public conveyance shall be forthwith deposited by the licensee or driver of such conveyance at the nearest police station. Disposal of property : penalty.

(2) The Commissioner of Police shall cause such property to be returned to such person as shall prove to his satisfaction that he is entitled to the same, on payment by such person of all expenses reasonably incurred and of such compensation to the driver of the public conveyance as the Commissioner of Police may consider just.

(3) Any licensee or driver failing to deposit any property as required by sub-section (1) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Rules.

35. (1) The Commissioner of Police, subject to the condition of previous publication, may make rules not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act for the regulation of public conveyances.

(2) Such rules shall be published in the Bombay Government Gazette.

Extension of Act.

36. (1) The Commissioner in Sind or the Commissioner of a division may by notification in the Bombay Government Gazette extend this Act or any specified provisions thereof to any area within his jurisdiction from a date to be stated in such notification.

(2) When this Act or any portion thereof is extended to any such area, the Commissioner in Sind or the Commissioner of the division, as the case may be,—

(a) shall by notification appoint some person to perform the functions assigned by this Act to the Commissioner of Police, and

(b) may by notification direct that any particular Magistrates or classes of Magistrates shall exercise jurisdiction under this Act and

(c) may by notification direct —

(i) that any class of vehicles shall be exempt from all or any of the provisions of this Act, or

(ii) that all or any of the provisions of this Act, except those which relate to plying for hire, shall apply to vehicles or to any class of vehicles which are kept, or ordinarily let, for hire, but which are not used for the purpose of plying for hire.

(3) A notification under this section extending this Act or any portion thereof to any area shall be published at least thirty days before the date fixed for its coming into effect.

(4) When this Act or any portion thereof is extended to any area, the powers of fixing fees and of appointing stands and of making rules shall be exercised subject to the approval of the Commissioner in Sind or the Commissioner of the division, as the case may be.

(5) When this Act or any portion thereof has been extended to any area, the Commissioner in Sind or the Commissioner of the division, as the case may be, shall pay to the local authority administering this Act in such area or, if there be more than one such local authority, to the local authorities of such area in such proportion as he shall think fit, the balance remaining after

BOMBAY ACT No. IX OF 1920.²

[THE BOMBAY VILLAGE PANCHAYATS ACT, 1920.]

[11th November, 1920.]

An Act to provide for the constitution of village panchayats.

WHEREAS it is expedient to give the inhabitants of certain small areas the opportunity of providing for the requirements of such areas in respect of water supply, sanitation and other works of public utility, with the object that they may be encouraged to take an interest in local self-government; And whereas the previous sanction of the Governor General required by section 5 & 6 Geo. 79, sub-section (2), of the Government of India Act, 1915, has been obtained 5, c. 61. for the passing of this Act; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bombay Village Panchayats Act 1920.

Extent.

(2) It extends to the whole of the Bombay Presidency.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) the word "village" means any local area duly declared to be a village for the purposes of this Act;

¹ For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Bombay Government Gazette, 1920, Pt. V, p. 410; and for Proceedings in Council, see ibid, 1920, Pt. V, p. 649.

³ For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Bombay Government Gazette, 1919, Pt. V, p. 968; for Report of Select Committee, see ibid, 1920, Pt. V, p. 64; and for Proceedings in Council, see ibid, 1919, Pt. V, p. 1108; ibid, 1920, pp. 268, 744, 763 and 796.

(b) the word "prescribed" means prescribed by rules under this Act;

(c) the word "sar-panch" means the chairman of the panchayat elected in accordance with the provisions of section 12.

3. On application in writing being made either by the district local board after previous notice to the Collector or by the Collector after previous notice to the district local board the Commissioner may, by notification in the Bombay Government Gazette,—

(a) declare any local area to be a village for the purposes of this Act;

(b) declare that any area should be included in or excluded from a village; or

(c) cancel any such declaration.

4. In every village a panchayat shall be established consisting of such number of persons not less than five as shall be determined by the district local board.

5. The officiating patel, if any, or if there be more than one, the officiating revenue patel, or if there be more than one officiating revenue patel, the senior shall be ex-officio a member of the panchayat.

The president of the district local board shall in case of doubt or dispute decide who is the senior officiating revenue patel and his decision shall be final.

Save as aforesaid each member of the panchayat shall be elected.

6. No person may become or continue to be an elected member of a panchayat who —

(a) is a female, or

(b) is under twenty-one years of age, or

(c) does not ordinarily reside in the village, or

(d) has been sentenced by a Criminal Court to imprisonment or whipping for an offence punishable with imprisonment for a term exceeding six months, or to transportation, or has been ordered to find security for good behaviour under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, such sentence or order not having subsequently been reversed or remitted or the offender pardoned, and whose disqualification has not been removed by an order which the Governor in Council is hereby empowered to make, or

(e) has been permanently debarred from practising as a legal practitioner by order of any competent authority, or

(f) has been adjudged by a competent Civil Court to be a lunatic, the adjudgment being still in force, or

(g) has been adjudicated an insolvent by a competent Court and has not obtained his discharge, or

(h) has been removed from office under section 15 and whose disqualification has not been removed by an order which the district local board is hereby empowered to make.

A disqualification under clause (d) shall cease on the expiration of five years from the order of whipping or the termination of the period of imprisonment, transportation or security, as the case may be, and a disqualification under clause (e) shall cease on the expiration of five years from the date of the order.

Elections.

7. Subject to the foregoing provisions and to such rules as may be made by the Governor in Council, elections shall be made in each village by the adult male residents therein at a meeting presided over by the Assistant or Deputy Collector or other officer or person appointed in this behalf by the Collector and the result shall be reported by him to the Collector and the district local board.

Validity of elections

8. If the Collector after enquiry is satisfied that any member has been elected in contravention of the provisions of section 6 or that any corrupt or irregular practice has been committed in connection with the election of any member which in the opinion of the Collector should invalidate such election, the Collector shall declare the election of such member to be invalid and such declaration shall be final.

New election if election invalid.

9. If the Collector shall declare the election of any member invalid, new election for the vacant seat shall be held in accordance with the foregoing provisions.

Term of office.

10. Members elected at a periodical election under this Act shall ordinarily hold office for a term of three years and shall be eligible for re-election.

Secretary.

11. Every panchayat shall appoint a secretary. Such appointment shall be subject to the approval of the district local board.

Sar-panch.

12. (1) The members of the panchayat shall elect one of themselves as sar-panch.

(2) The sar-panch shall ordinarily hold office for one year, but shall be eligible for re-election.

Procedure at meetings.

13. The procedure at a meeting of a panchayat shall be in accordance with rules made by the Governor in Council in this behalf.

Executive of panchayat.

14. The resolutions of the panchayat shall be carried out by the sar-panch, in whom the entire executive power of the panchayat shall be vested, and who shall be directly responsible for the due fulfilment of the duties imposed upon the panchayat by or under this Act.

15. The district local board may after hearing the views of the panchayat remove any elected member or any sar-panch of a panchayat who is in its opinion unfit to be a member or sar-panch, as the case may be, or is persistently remiss in the discharge of his duties as such, and a sar-panch so removed may unless he be an ex-officio member of the panchayat, at the discretion of the said board, also be removed from the panchayat. The district local board may also remove the secretary of a panchayat for similar reasons.

16. If any dispute arises as to whether a member does or does not ordinarily reside in the village such dispute shall be decided by the Collector after enquiry and his decision shall be final.

Residence of member to be decided by Collector.

17. (1) Any vacancy due to the disablement, death, resignation, disqualification or removal of an elected member shall be filled up as soon as convenient by the election held in accordance with the foregoing provisions of a person who shall hold office so long only as the member in whose place he is elected would have held it if the vacancy had not occurred.

Vacancy due to disqualification, etc., of elected member.

(2) Any vacancy due to the disablement, death, resignation, disqualification or removal of a sar-panch shall be filled up as soon as convenient by the election of a member who shall hold office as sar-panch so long only as the sar-panch in whose place he is elected would have held it if the vacancy had not occurred.

(3) A sar-panch shall become disqualified if as a member of the panchayat he becomes disqualified.

18. (1) It shall be the duty of the panchayat within the limits of the fund at its disposal to make reasonable provision for carrying out the requirements of the village in respect of as many of the following matters as the district local board shall direct, vis. :—

Duties of panchayat.

(a) the supply of water for domestic use ;

(b) the cleansing of the public roads, drains, tanks and wells (other than tanks and wells used exclusively for irrigation) and other public places or works in the village ;

(c) the construction, maintenance and repair of minor roads, drains and bridges : provided that such works shall not be undertaken without the permission of the person or authority in whom or in which the road, drain or bridge vests ;

(d) sanitation, conservancy and the prevention and abatement of nuisances ;

(e) the preservation and improvement of the public health ;

(f) the maintenance and the regulation of the use of public buildings vesting in the panchayat, grazing lands, tanks and wells (other than tanks and wells used exclusively for irrigation) ; and

(g) the lighting of the village.

(2) The panchayat may also make provision for carrying out the requirements of the village in respect of any other matters approved by the district local board.

Additional duties.

19. The district local board may at any time, with the consent of the panchayat, transfer to such panchayat the management of any institution or the execution of any work not provided for in section 18, and it shall thereupon be lawful for such panchayat to undertake the management of such institution or the execution of such work : provided that in every such case the funds necessary for such management or execution shall be placed at the disposal of the panchayat by the district local board.

Other duties.

20. (1) The panchayat shall, subject to rules made by the district local board under this Act,—

(a) supervise the village school ;

(b) supervise the labour employed by local boards on works within the village ;

(c) manage and maintain cattle pounds ;

(d) perform such other administrative duties as may from time to time be assigned to it by the Governor in Council by notification in the Bombay Government Gazette.

(2) Rules made by the district local board under this section shall be made within six months from the passing of this Act. If not made within that period, it shall be open to the Governor in Council to make rules in this behalf.

Property of panchayat.

21. (1) It shall be competent to the district local board from time to time to direct that any property vesting in the district local board shall vest in a panchayat.

(2) Every work constructed by a panchayat shall vest in such panchayat.

Schedule of servants.

22. The panchayat shall, subject to the provisions of section 32, determine and submit to the district local board a schedule of the number and salaries of its servants required for carrying out the duties imposed upon the panchayat by or under this Act.

Appointment of servants.

23. (1) The sar-panch shall appoint the servants of the panchayat and pay their salaries from the funds at his disposal. He may also in cases of emergency engage such temporary servants as he may deem necessary. The sar-panch may from time to time by a written order fine, suspend or dismiss any servant appointed by him.

(2) No appeal shall lie against any order passed under this section other than an appeal to the panchayat against an order of dismissal.

24. (1) The panchayat shall determine annually and shall submit to Budget. the district local board on or before such date and in such form as may be prescribed by the district local board a statement of—

(a) the opening balance and estimated income of the village fund for the following year ;

(b) the expenditure proposed on establishment and the discharge of the duties specified in sub-section (1) of section 18 ;

(c) the expenditure proposed under sub-section (2) of section 18.

(2) The district local board shall within two months from the date of the receipt of such statement either approve the same or direct that the proposed expenditure on any of the duties specified in section 18 shall be increased or decreased : provided that the district local board shall not have power to direct that the total proposed expenditure shall exceed the estimated income of the village fund for the following year.

25. For each village there shall be at the disposal of the panchayat a Village fund. village fund and there shall be placed to the credit thereof —

(a) any amount which may be allotted to the village fund by the Bom. Act III Governor in Council under the provisions of section 191 of the ¹ Bombay 1901. District Municipal Act, 1901 ;

(b) the proceeds of any tax imposed under section 26 or section 27 ;

(c) all fines realized in prosecutions for breaches of the by-laws made under this Act ;

(d) all other sums ordered by a Court to be placed to the credit of the village fund ;

(e) the sale proceeds, except in so far as any person is entitled to the whole or a portion thereof, of all dust, dirt, dung, or refuse (including the dead bodies of animals) collected by the village servants ;

(f) sums contributed to the village fund by a district local board ;

(g) all sums received by way of loans from Government or by way of gift ;

(b) such other sums as may be assigned to the village fund by any general or special order of the Governor in Council; and

(i) the income of any property vesting in the panchayat under section 21.

House tax.

26. In every village a house tax shall be levied in accordance with rules made by the Governor in Council.

Additional taxation.

27. (1) Subject to the veto of the Governor in Council a panchayat may, with the approval of and in accordance with rules made by the district local board, levy any tax upon the owners or occupiers of houses or lands within the limits of the village. Any such owner or occupier may appeal against the assessment or levy of any such tax to the district local board whose decision shall be final.

(2) Subject to such veto a panchayat may with such approval and in accordance with such rules impose an octroi.

Any resident of the village may appeal against the imposition of such octroi to the district local board whose decision shall be final.

Increase of income.

28. (1) If at any time in the opinion of the district local board the regular income of the panchayat falls below what is necessary for the proper discharge of the duties specified in section 18, the district local board may call upon the panchayat to take steps within six months to increase its income to such a figure as it considers necessary. If the panchayat fails to take adequate steps to increase its income to the required amount, the district local board may require it to increase the house tax:

Provided that in no circumstances shall the district local board have power to require the house tax to be increased beyond the maximum rate prescribed by the Governor in Council.

(2) Any panchayat may appeal to the Commissioner against the enhancement of its income and no action shall be taken by the district local board to effect such enhancement until the appeal has been decided.

Recovery of taxes.

29. (1) On any person failing to pay any tax or instalment thereof or any due on or before the specified date of payment, the panchayat shall cause a writ of demand to be served on the defaulter and, if payment is not made within 15 days from such service, may levy such sum by distraint and sale of his movable property.

(2) If the panchayat either fails to recover the taxes or fines due to it or neglects to take action under the provisions of the preceding sub-section or of sub-section (4) of section 41, the district local board may request the Collector to recover the same as an arrear of land revenue, and the Collector may, after holding such enquiry, if any, as he thinks fit, proceed to do so.

Bom. Act I
of 1884

30. Notwithstanding anything in the ¹Bombay Local Boards Act, 1884, Bombay the district or taluka local board may assign a portion of the local fund to a Local Board panchayat for expenditure in connection with the provisions of this Act. Act.

31. (1) The district local board shall have power—

inspection.

(a) to enter on and inspect, or cause to be entered on and inspected any immovable property occupied by any panchayat, or any work in progress under it or under its direction ;

(b) to call for any extract from the proceedings of a panchayat, any book or document in the possession of or under the control of a panchayat and any return, statement, account or report which it may think fit to require such panchayat to furnish ;

(c) to require a panchayat to take into consideration any objection which appears to the district local board to exist to the doing of any thing which is about to be done or is being done by such panchayat, or any information which the district local board is able to furnish and which appears to it to necessitate the doing of a certain thing by the panchayat, and to make a written reply to the district local board within a reasonable time stating its reasons for not desisting from doing, or for not doing, such thing.

(2) All or any of the powers given to the district local board under the preceding sub-section may be delegated by it to its president, vice-president, chief officer, public health officer or executive engineer.

32. If in the opinion of the district local board the number of persons maintained or proposed to be maintained by a panchayat as officers or servants or the remuneration given or proposed to be given by the panchayat to such persons is excessive, the panchayat shall, on the requirement of the district local board, reduce such number or remuneration : Extravagance in establishment.

Provided that the panchayat may appeal against any such requirement to the Governor in Council, whose decision shall be final.

33. (1) If in the opinion of the district local board the execution of any order or resolution of a panchayat or the doing of anything which is about to be done or is being done by or on behalf of a panchayat is causing, or is likely to cause injury or annoyance to the public, or to lead to a breach of the peace, it may, by order in writing, under the signature of its president suspend the execution or prohibit the doing thereof. Suspension of execution or of order.

(2) When a district local board makes any order under the preceding sub-section, it shall forthwith forward to the Governor in Council and to the panchayat affected thereby a copy of the order with a statement of the reasons for making it, and it shall be in the discretion of the Governor in Council to revoke the order, or to direct that it continue in force, with or without modification, permanently or for such period as he may think fit.

Execution of work in case of emergency.

34. (1) In cases of emergency the district local board may provide for the execution of any work, or the doing of any act, which a panchayat is empowered to execute or do, and the immediate execution or doing of which is, in its opinion, necessary for the health or safety of the public, and may direct that the expense of executing the work or doing the act, shall be forthwith paid by the panchayat.

(2) If the expense is not so paid, the district local board may direct the officer in charge of the treasury in which the village fund is kept to pay such expense, or as much thereof as is possible, from the balance of such fund in his hands.

(3) The district local board shall forthwith report to the Governor in Council every case in which it uses the powers given to it by sub-section (1).

Performance of duty.

35. (1) If at any time it appears to the district local board that a panchayat has made default in the performance of any duty specified in section 18, it may order the duty to be performed within a specified period and, if the duty is not performed within the period specified, it may appoint some person to perform it and direct that the expense of performance shall be paid by the defaulting panchayat within such period as the district local board may fix.

(2) If the expense is not so paid, the district local board may direct the officer in charge of the treasury in which the village fund is kept to pay such expense, or as much thereof as is possible, from the balance of such fund in his hands.

(3) The district local board shall forthwith report to the Governor in Council every case in which it uses the powers given to it by sub-section (1).

Supersession of panchayat.

36. (1) If in the opinion of the Governor in Council a panchayat exceeds or abuses its powers or makes persistent default in the performance of the duties specified in section 18, the Governor in Council may, after reference to the district local board, by an order in the Bombay Government Gazette, supersede such panchayat for a period specified in the order.

(2) When a panchayat is so superseded,

(a) all members thereof shall vacate their offices as members as from the date of the communication of the orders to the sar-panch ;

(b) all powers and duties of the panchayat shall, during the period of supersession, be exercised and performed by such person or persons as the district local board may from time to time appoint in that behalf ; and

(c) on the expiry of the period of supersession the panchayat shall be reconstituted and the persons vacating their offices under clause (a) shall be eligible for re-election.

Bom. Act I
of 1884.

37. In all matters connected with this Act, the Governor in Council shall have and exercise the same authority and control over the district local boards as he has and exercises over them under the 'Bombay Local Boards Act, 1884.

38. (1) The district local board may, with the previous sanction of the Governor in Council, make by-laws providing for—

(a) the purification and protection from pollution of all sources of water used for drinking purposes;

(b) the prohibition of the removal or use for drinking purposes of any water from any stream, tank, well or other source where such removal or use causes, or is likely to cause, disease or injury to health and the prevention of such removal or use by the filling in or covering over of such tank or well or by any other method which may be considered advisable;

(c) the prohibition of the deposit or storage of manure, refuse or other offensive matter in a manner or in places prejudicial to the public health, comfort or convenience;

(d) the regulating of offensive callings or trades;

(e) the disposal of corpses by burning or burial;

(f) the excavation of earth and the filling up of excavations and depressions injurious to health or offensive to the neighbourhood;

(g) the removal of noxious vegetation;

(h) the repair and removal of dangerous or ruinous buildings;

(i) the prevention of the erection of buildings without adequate provision for ventilation or the laying out and location of streets;

(j) the regulation of markets and slaughter-houses; and

(k) the general regulation of sanitation and conservancy;

and may with the like sanction provide a penalty not exceeding ten rupees for a breach of any such by-law.

(2) All or any of these by-laws may be applied to any village by the district local board.

(3) The making of such by-laws shall be subject to the condition of previous publication.

Trial for breaches of by-laws by panchayat.

39. (1) Every breach of a by-law made under this Act shall, unless the District Magistrate otherwise directs, be cognizable by the panchayat.

(2) The panchayat shall in the presence of the accused person, or if notwithstanding the service of a notice upon the said person he fails to appear, then in his absence, take evidence as to the alleged breach and any evidence produced by the said person in his defence and shall thereupon either acquit or convict the accused person and, if he is convicted, the panchayat may sentence him to such punishment authorised by this Act or by the by-laws as it thinks reasonable.

(3) No advocate, attorney, pleader, vakil or mukhtiar shall appear before a panchayat on behalf of an accused person.

(4) A person convicted by the panchayat may, at any time within ten days after sentence is passed against him, apply for revision to the District Magistrate or to such other Magistrate, not being a member of such panchayat, as the District Magistrate may, subject to the orders of the Governor in Council, from time to time appoint in this behalf.

(5) In revision the Magistrate may confirm, reverse or modify the decision of the panchayat and may pass any order as to punishment which it was competent to the panchayat to pass; his order shall be enforced in like manner as one made by the panchayat.

(6) Such Magistrate may suspend execution of the sentence pending disposal of the application when such suspension shall appear to him necessary or expedient, on such terms as he may think fit.

Trial by Magistrate.

40. Where the District Magistrate by a special or general order so directs, any breach of such by-laws shall not be cognizable by a panchayat under section 39 but shall be cognizable by any Magistrate and punishable as provided in this Act.

Punishment.

41. (1) A breach of any by-law made under this Act shall be punishable, unless in any case a smaller punishment is provided in such by-laws, with fine which may extend to ten rupees and in the case of a continuing breach with fine which may extend to two rupees for every day during which the breach continues after conviction for the first breach or after receipt of notice from the panchayat to discontinue the breach.

(2) A person convicted by a Magistrate of a breach or a continuing breach may be sentenced in default of payment of the fine to simple imprisonment for a period which may extend to four days.

(3) A panchayat may allow a person sentenced by it to pay a fine such time not exceeding four days as it may think proper for the payment of the fine, on such terms as to security as it shall seem to the panchayat necessary to impose.

(4) Fines inflicted by a panchayat shall be recoverable by distraint and sale of the offender's movable property. If the amount of the fine is not fully recovered, the panchayat may apply to a Magistrate to recover the fine or such part thereof as has not been recovered and the Magistrate shall proceed to recover the same as if the fine had been imposed by himself.

42. (1) The Governor in Council may by notification in the Bombay Rules (Government Gazette make rules—

- (a) under section 7, regulating the elections of members of panchayats;
- (b) under section 13, regulating the procedure at a meeting of a panchayat, providing for the casting vote of the sar-panch, and fixing a quorum;
- (c) under section 20, on default by the district local board, regulating the performance by panchayats of the duties therein referred to;
- (d) under section 26, regulating the levy of a house-tax;
- (e) under section 28, fixing a maximum rate of house-tax.

(2) The district local board may, with the previous sanction of the Governor in Council, make rules to carry out the objects of this Act except in the cases provided for in sub-section (1); in particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, such rules may be made—

- (a) under section 20, regulating the performance by panchayats of the duties therein referred to;
- (b) under section 24, fixing a time limit for submitting and the form of the statement therein referred to;
- (c) under section 27, regulating the levy of additional taxation.

The making of such rules shall be subject to the condition of previous publication.

43. The Governor in Council may by notification authorise any person Delegation of to exercise any of the powers vested in him or conferred on district local powers. boards in respect of panchayats by this Act and may at any time in like manner modify or cancel such authority.

44. On any area ceasing to be a village the unexpended balance of the Balance of village fund and the property vesting in the panchayat shall vest in the village fund. district local board and shall be utilized for the benefit of the inhabitants of the area as the district local board may think fit.
